CONGRESSMEN HEAR SALT:

Arnheiter Made Sailors 'Feel Like Men Of War'

BULLETIN

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Lt. Cmdr. Marcus A. Arnheiter of San Rafael "should have received a commendation instead of being relieved" of his command of the destroyer escort Vance, a chief petty officer who served under the officer said today.

"He made us feel like men of war with no time for boredom," Cpo. William Young of Cincinnati, testified at a special congressional hearing conducted by Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick, D-New York.

Young told the committee that Arnheiter had greatly boosted morale aboard the ship and had increased the combat readiness of the crew.

SEEKS HEARING

Arnheiter, relieved of his command in 1966 after junior officers aboard the ship filed complaints, is asking that an official Navy court of inquiry be convened so he can have a formal hearing. He is now assigned to shore duty at Treasure Island.

Arnheiter has contended that the Vance was in poor fighting condition when he took command and that he took extra measures to get the ship and crew ready for duty in coastal waters off Vietnam.

POOR RECORD

Young told Representative Resnick the Vance had the worst disciplinary record in Pearl Harbor before Arnheiter took command. He said the ship was in poor physical condition with cockroaches overrunning it and crew members constantly getting into fights.

After the Vance had been assigned to coastal surveillance duty off Vietnam "her combat readiness in a war zone was second to none."

When Arnheiter was removed, "it was quite a blow . . . it was like surrendering to the Viet Cong," Young said.

SHELLING STORY

Referring to charges that Arnheiter had ordered the Vance to fire on a Buddhist pagoda while patrolling Vietnam coastal waters, Young said the ship ac-

HEALTH PLANNING

Approach Favors Entire Bay Area

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

A little known federal law called "Partnership for Health" was termed "the most important legislation since the Social Security Act of the thirties" last night by a high-ranking federal official in a talk at the Civic Center.

The assistant U.S. surgeon general, Dr. R. Leslie Smith, spoke before about 70 persons representing health, civic and fraternal groups throughout Marin.

The meeting was called by Dr. Arthur R. Ablin, past president of the Marin Medical Society, to form a "Marin Comprehensive Health Planning Council" to give the county a voice in the Bay Area regional council being formed to meet the new law's requirements for coordinated use of federal health care dollars.

The law was effective last July.

The program puts new power and responsibility over health programs in the hands of states, and calls for regional planning of how to use federal health care dollars, Dr. Smith explained.

At present, the federal government makes grants to specific health programs throughout the World's 13th Heart Operation In France

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The world's 13th heart transplant was performed last night in France.

The recipient was a 65-year-old Montpellier man, who was not identified. The donor was Jean-Claude Amarger, 35, a service station owner and father of three who died of injuries suffered last Friday when a tire exploded at his garage.

The patient's condition was reported "satisfactory" today as were those of two heart transplant patients in Houston's St. Luke's Hospital and one in the National Heart Hospital in London.

Dr. Philip Blaiberg, a Cape Town, South Africa, dentist operated on last December, is the only other survivor of the 13 transplants.

James B. Cobb, 48, of Alexandria, La., who received a transplant last Sunday, died at St. Luke's yesterday, the eighth man to succumb following transplant surgery.

The French transplant was the second in that nation and was performed by a team of surgeons headed by Dr. Eric Negre of the Montpellier University medical faculty, located in Southern France.

Clovis Roblain, 66, France's first heart transplant patient, died April 30, 51 hours after receiving the heart of a 23-year-old metal worker in Paris.

Frederick West, 45, Britain's first heart transplant, was reported fine today.

Everett C. Thomas Jr., 47, of Phoenix, Ariz., and John M. Stuckwish, 62, of Alpine, Tex., made gains yesterday and were reported in "satisfactory" condition early today.

Reagan Urges Water Funds

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan promised today that "there'll be no tax increase" to help the financially troubled $2.8 billion State Water Project, even though a stopgap financing bill he supports was defeated in a Senate committee.

The governor talked mainly about state legislative and political problems at his news conference, which was notable because he wasn't asked a single question about presidential politics.

Reagan said he still hopes the water project financing bill will clear the legislature.

Cerrudo Takes Early Golf Lead

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Ron Cerrudo, a shaggy-haired rookie from San Rafael, fashioned a four-under-par 67 today to take the early first round lead in the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open golf tourney.

A member of the 1967 Walker Cup team, Cerrudo, 23, turned pro last fall. He was runnerup in the 1967 British Amateur.

Jacky Cupit, Dave Marr, Johnny Pott and Australian Bob Stanton also were four-under-par but all had several holes still to finish.

Blocks Of Saigon Set Afire; Hanoi's Delegation In Paris

Another Offer On Peace

PARIS (UPI) — Xuan Thuy, North Vietnam's chief negotiator, arrived today for preliminary talks with the United States and said Hanoi is ready for formal peace negotiations as soon as the United States agrees to end bombing of the North.

Thuy delayed his arrival for more than three hours for further strategy talks in Moscow with Soviet leaders.

Meanwhile U.S. envoys W. Averell Harriman and Cyrus B. Vance left Washington today for the talks voicing hope that "progress can be made toward a peaceful settlement of the Vietnam War. Harriman said the American delegation was going to Paris "in a spirt of hope, sincerity and good will."

SIDES SIILENT

Although U.S. officials were skeptical and the North Vietnamese were silent, the French predicted the preliminary talks might well expand into a full dress peace conference in Paris and lead towards an end of years of bloodshed.

On the eve of the talks the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese put the torch to large areas of Saigon in their spring offensive apparently called to strengthen their hand in Paris.

MOSCOW VISIT

Thuy spent last night in Moscow after an earlier stopover in Peking where he conferred with Chinese Communist officials.

Experienced diplomats predict long weary weeks, perhaps even months, of frustrating negotiations before a breakthrough towards a peace settlement could be hoped for.

U.S. officials felt that failure in Paris could mean resumption of full scale bombing of North Vietnam and even heavier fighting in the South with all the attendant risks of possible involvement with the Soviet Union and Communist China.

U.S. OUTLOOK

Before leaving Washington, Harriman said the U.S. delegation hoped to hold its first meeting with the North Vietnamese tomorrow but said no time had been set. He said the U.S. principal objective in the talks is to "preserve the right of the people of South Vietnam to determine their own fate without any outside interference."

In Saigon, President Nguyen Van Thieu said any lasting peace in South Vietnam could come only from direct negotiations betweeen the Saigon government and Hanoi. He spoke in a nationwide broadcast which appeared to reflect Saigon's coolness toward the Paris talks.

On another, North Vietnam's President Ho Chi Minh has called on the Viet Cong to step

Battle Grows In Capital

SAIGON (UPI) — Large areas of Saigon were in flames tonight as the Communists pressed a bloody spring offensive on the eve of the Paris talks between the United States and North Vietnam.

Thousands of refugees were caught in the fighting and watched their homes burned before their eyes.

The United States threw 2,000 reinforcements into the growing battle and sent in more tanks and helicopter gunships. But the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese also reinforced, and Saigon was ringed by a series of battles that lit up the sky and deafened the senses with the thunder of explosions.

HOUSES AFIRE

U.S. military spokesmen said a band of 200 Viet Cong had penetrated allied lines and swept into the city, setting fire to whole blocks of houses as they went.

Street fighting broke out in at least five areas of Saigon while allied planes, artillery and helicopters strafed the enemy—and started more fires.

They said more than 3,000 Communists already had been killed in the five-day-old Red offensive, 2,540 of them in Saigon. Captured prisoners said they had orders to fight to the death.

U.S. LOSSES

U.S. losses were put at 53 killed and 487 wounded in the offensive and South Viet troop losses at 202 men killed and 719 wounded.

The war in the city killed at least 75 civilians, wounded 1,759 and raised the total of refugees in the heart of Saigon to more than 120,000.

The U.S. Command announced that 383 Americans were killed in Vietnam last week and 1,501 wounded, one of the highest death tolls in two months but one which did not reflect the current battle for

THREE-CORNERED CONFLICT

Heartbreak, Financial Drain Linked To Wayward Teen-Ager

By MARY LEYDECKER

Can Big Brother take your troublesome teen-ager from you, make him a ward of the court, send him to an expensive institution and then stick you with a bill that could amount to thousands of dollars?

Apparently this not only can happen but is a fairly common procedure as the law is being administered and interpreted in Marin County by a myriad of agencies.

The story of a three-cornered conflict between a 15-year-old Novato girl, her middle-class parents and the county is of a kind becoming commonplace in local courts.

"We really fell into a hole," is the way the girl's distraught mother describes the family's tortuous journey through a maze of county officialdom.

The outcome is that the girl has been taken from them, they may not take her with them when they move to the Midwest this summer and they face staggering expenses as well as possible embarrassment for the father in his career.

The story began last fall, when the girl, who has a brother at a big university, an older sister who is a good student and well-behaved younger brothers and sisters, first got into trouble with the authorities.

She was picked up for being truant and drinking beer with a gang of girls. "We hoped that a good scare — a glimpse of what could happen to her — would help our daughter," the mother said.

"Instead, she found that she could play the county against her parents," she charged. "What she needs is discipline and instead, she has found a shoulder to lean on," the mother said.

After being placed on probation for a year for the beer drinking episode, the girl decided that she didn't want to live at home and turned herself into Juvenile Hall one night after disappearing from home.

A probation officer and a psychiatrist then entered the picture, and "after two days with them, I was ready to agree to anything," the mother said.

The girl's probation officer says that he and the psychiatrist recommended that the girl needed a place to live "where she would not have to meet the

House GOP Willing To Go Along On Surcharge Tax

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said today he would "reluctantly" vote for a tax increase coupled to a $6 billion spending reduction.

House and Senate negotiators decided late yesterday to recommend a $6 billion cut in fiscal 1969 spending as the price for approving President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

The spending reduction proposed by the taxwriters is $2 billion greater than the maximum Johnson had called acceptable. But Republican leaders who balked at a $4 billion figure apparently are willing to go along with a package with a higher cut.

On the Senate side, democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said congressional tax-writers, not the president, should detail the spending cuts tied to the surtax.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce still insisted on even a larger spending cut than $6 billion. In a statement, it supported spending a tax hike but said reductions should be "more nearly equal to the sum to be raised by the tax increase" —about $10 billion a year.

Warsaw Restricts Travel From City

One diplomat was told by a uniformed road patrol that all diplomats were barred from leaving the city until further notice.

Greyhound Contract Talks Take Recess

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Negotiations on a new contract between Western Greyhound and the Amalgamated Transit Union, affecting bus employees in 11 Western states, were recessed yesterday with no progress reported.

The meetings started Monday under the auspices of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. They were recessed by Commissioner Roger Randall with no date set for resumption.

High Bid Defended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Army Secretary Stanley R. Resor says the Pentagon selected higher-priced bidders for nearly half a million M16 rifles for Vietnam because the firms can deliver the weapons sooner.

Resor's statement came in the wake of sharp congressional criticism of contract arrangements under which General Motors would be paid $19 million more than Harrington & Richardson for the same number of rifles.

More Pueblo Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. and North Korean representatives have met for the 16th time in the truce city of Panmunjom to discuss release of the crew of the American intelligence ship Pueblo.

The State Department said yesterday in disclosing the session that no apparent progress had been made since the North Koreans seized the vessel Jan. 23.

Another F111 Crash

NELLIS AFB, Nev. (UPI) — Air Force investigators today examined the wreckage of an F111A jet which crashed 60 miles north of Las Vegas.

The sweptwing bomber crashed yesterday in a remote desert area about 30 miles from the Utah-Nevada boundary. Both pilots ejected safely.

It was the fourth known crash of an F111A. Three of the $6 million planes, crammed with sophisticated navigation and bombing devices, have crashed in Southeast Asia.

An Air Force spokesman said the crash Wednesday occurred on "A routine training flight."

Arson On Campus?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fire heavily damaged ground floor classrooms of Catholic University's three-story art building early today. Officials said they suspected arson.

Damage to the west wing of the brick building, Salve Regina Hall, was estimated at $50,000.

Agent Is Victim

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Secret Service man on the White House detail had to borrow a buddy's tuxedo — slightly too small — to go on duty at a presidential dinner last night. His own black-tie outfit was stolen from his car earlier in the day while it was parked near the White House, he confessed.

Urban Program Funding Goes To Senators

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The House has passed and sent to the Senate a $13.8 billion money bill for federal agencies, including stepped-up amounts for public housing, rent supplements and other urban programs.

The 353-37 roll call vote sent the measure to the Senate.

The House went down the line with recommendations of its Appropriations Committee, beating down all attempts to cut the urban aid funds.

While these outlays were higher than those voted last year, they were below the requests of President Johnson, who termed the House measure a "step forward" but not enough.

Party In Trouble

LONDON (AP) — A national opinion poll today showed a record 71 per cent of Britain's voters dissatisfied with Prime Minister Harold Wilson's Labor government as the polls opened for municipal elections throughout England.

Hasty Summit Hints Russ Worries Over Czech Rule

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia and four loyal Communist allies pledged today to maintain a solid ideological front in a surprise summit held without the Soviet bloc's two mavericks —Czechoslovakia and Romania.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said the five nations "expressed firm resolution to continue doing their utmost to develop friendship and all around cooperation . . ." Joining the Soviet Union at the one-day conference were party leaders of Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary and East Germany.

The summit was described officially as dealing with "the international system and the world Communist and working class movement."

The Kremlin was believed to have summoned its closest Communist allies to Moscow to express its concern over Czechoslovakia's rapid economic and social reforms. The Soviets have denounced "anti-Soviet feeling" resulting from charges in Prague that Russia masterminded the deaths of former Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk in 1948 and party chief Rudolph Slansky in 1952.

Romania's absence was not surprising. Independent-minded

But Czechoslovakia's absence amazed Kremlin-watchers. Czechoslovakia's recent liberalization and its insistence on following its own foreign and domestic policies had strained Moscow-Prague relations, but few observers here were ready to conclude that Czechoslovakia, like Romania recently and Yugoslavia two decades ago, had been cast out of the bloc.

Meanwhile, an active search was under way for Jack Griffith, 30, a karate expert named as co-defendant with Murphy in indictments handed down Tuesday by the Broward Grand Jury.

Griffith and Murphy were indicted by the Broward Grand Jury for the December slaying of Terry Rae Frank, 23, and Annalie Marie Mohn, 21, whose bathing suit-clad bodies were spotted at low tide in Hollywood's Whiskey Creek by fishermen.

Arraignment On Theft Charges

Robert Louis Arnett Jr., 19, of San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on two misdemeanor charges, including one that he stole from his father.

Arnett, who no longer lives at home, is accused of stealing a safe containing five guns, family jewelry and 19 books of trading stamps from the home of his father, Robert Louis Arnett Sr. of 121 Fairhills Drive, San Rafael, April 22.

He was also charged with being in a place where marijuana is used, when police arrested him at 23 Scenic Avenue, San Rafael, the same day.

His case was continued until today for entry of plea.

Auto Tampering Plea Date Set

Gary Thomas Peterson and Daniel William Caveny, both 19-year-old Corte Madera youths, were arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges of auto tampering and trespassing.

San Quentin guards arrested them Monday night, saying they caught them snooping among autos stored at the prison for auction by the state.

Peterson was told to return to court tomorrow for entry of plea. Caveny was to return today.

Attorney Hugh Downey Found Dead

Hugh J. Downey, an attorney in Marin for the past 18 years, was found dead in his apartment home in San Rafael yesterday. He was 51.

Death was due tto apparent natural causes and Downey had been dead for about four days, according tto Keith Craig, deputy county coroner.

Downey, who was divorced, was found lying nude on the floor of his apartment at 95 Medway by his former father-in-law, Ellard H. Beans of Piedmont.

A neighbor said he had last seen Downey on Saturday. Craig reported the apartment was in disarray with furniture overturned. The body was covered with bruises and there were several splashes of what appeared to be blood around the room.

San Rafael police said today they would await the report of aan autopsy at Keaton's Morttuary before deciding whether to continue the investigation. In the meantime, police were listing the death at natural.

Born in Massachusetts, Downey was an attorney for 20 years and practised in San Francisco as well as San Rafael. He specialized in civil cases.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hugh J. Downey Sr., and a sister, Kathleen Downey, both of Pittsfield, Mass. He has an adopted son at school in England.

Marin Plans Health Partnership Actions

nation, but this has resulted in unnecessary duplication of health services, he said. Also, because of competition for federal funds, some grants have gone to less urgent programs while more necessary ones have been short of funds, said Dr. Smith.

As the man responsible for five western states, Alaska, Hawaii and various U.S. territories in the Pacific, Dr. Smith will be the man through whom federal health care dollars must go before they reach California.

A key element of the "Partnership for Health" program is that state and regional councils, which are to plan how to use federal funds, must have more members from the lay public than from the medical professions, he said.

Eventually, the bulk of federal health care dollars will go through the state and regional councils, predicted Dr. Smith. The law provides that states will receive block grants of federal funds that previously were earmarked for nine categories of health programs, mainly for control of various diseases, he said.

It will be up to the state councils to be sure that these funds are spent on the highest priorities in the state, he said. "We will have to see that the health of all citizens is as high as it can be," declared Dr. Smith.

In California, Gov. Ronald Reagan has designated the Department of Public Health as the state agency for the program, Dr. Smith said, and the department has appointed a Comprehensive Health Planning Advisory Council.

Carroll A. Snyker, executive director of the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau, then explained how the program is shaping up in Marin and the Bay Area. He is a member of the temporary board of directors appointed to form the Marin council.

The Marin Medical Society became aware of the program late last fall, he said, when other Bay Area counties began to scramble to have themselves declared separate regions. Also, several health groups banded together and asked the state advisory council to designate them as the Bay Area regional council.

The Marin Medical Society, fearing that Marin would have no effective voice in such a council, got into the scramble by joining with Sonoma, Napa and Solano counties "to see if we could be a region on our own, or a sub-region to the Bay Area," said Snyker.

The state advisory council, however, turned down all the groups' applications for planning grants, and made it clear that the only region that it would consider would be one that included the entire Bay Area, he said.

Now, as a result of negotiations among the health professionals throughout the Bay Area, "everyone is pretty much in agreement to form a 'Bay Area Comprehensive Health Planning Council,' " said Snyker. The Marin council "will allow us to express ourselves properly to the regional agency," he said.

The first step toward a Marin council was taken in December when the Marin Medical Society started a steering committee to discuss formation of a local council, said Dr. Ablin. It met nine times between December and March, and drew up a list of 33 persons to serve on a temporary board of directors which would form the council.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors approved this step, and the temporary board is to meet soon to file articles of incorporation, write bylaws and determine membership, he said. It should be in business by July, predicted Dr. Ablin.

The negotiations to form a regional council have resulted in agreement that it should be governed by a 27-member board of directors, said Dr. Ablin.

Each of the nine counties, including Marin, would have two directors, and one each would be from the Bay Area Health Facilities Planning Association, Northern California Hospital Association, Bay Area Social Planning Council and Bay Area Health Association.

"As a concession by the smaller counties," he said, the five remaining directors would be selected by the regional council from the counties with large populations. The regional and local councils will be funded by federal funds, said Dr. Ablin.

The audience, in a show of hands, indicated its unanimous approval of the steps taken so far to form the Marin council.

The new law does not make clear how regional councils should form or operate, said Dr. Smith, but he added that he "felt sure that the Bay Area approcah is working in the right direction."

The court with the reluctant consent of the parents decided that the girl was beyond parental control and named her a ward of the court. It decided she should be placed in the Marin Foundation group home in Larkspur, a non-profit home for girls which is sponsored by the Friends of Arequipa.

The cost of keeping a girl at this new home, which is operated in two units of six girls each, has not been accurately set yet, according to Mrs. John Finn III, chairman of the Marin Foundation advisory committee. But $620 a month per girl is now being charged.

This is despite $54,000 allocated for the home by the Marin County Board of Supervisors and a campaign by Friends of Arequipa for an additional $8,000 in gifts.

The $620 a month is the responsibility of the girls' parents or guardians, at least to the extent that they can pay, according to California law.

"In practice the county collects only a small amount of the money spent for this purpose," according to County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Collection of payments from parents is up to the county revenue officer, Mark Falconi. "We get what the traffic will bear," Falconi said.

For children placed in the county juvenile hall, parents are charged $5 a day. In other institutions, the bills are usually higher. "We keep a cumulative account of what parents owe us, and we don't forgive it until we feel they have made every effort to pay," Falconi said.

Children on probation are placed in homes and institutions ranging from foster homes (which cost about $100 a month) to such places as Marin Foundation. Sunny Hills Home runs $515 a month, and St. Vincent's, a Catholic home for boys, costs $238 a month.

"The cost of the institution is never taken into consideration when a child is placed," a probation officer said. "We just try to consider what is best for the child."

As for the parents of the 15-year-old girl, they have been told that they may owe as much as "$12,000 within two and a half years" and that a lien may be placed on their home.

The parents plan to move to the Midwest this summer, where "we thought the environment would be better for our daughter." But they will not be allowed to take the girl. She is a ward of the court — though they still have financial responsibility for her.

TAXES

their recommendation, the negotiators agreed on a 10 per cent surcharge on personal income taxes in the 15 months from April 1, 1968, to July 1, 1969. Corporations would be charged the same rate, but it would begin three months earlier, retroactive to Jan. 1.

Officials estimated the added revenue would amount to $10 billion on an annual basis, a total of $11.7 billion for the whole period covered.

Court Orders Hearing On Sealed Files

The California District Court of Appeal today set June 25 as the date of a hearing on the Independent-Journal's suit against Marin Superior Court over the sealing of testimony contained in transcripts of grand jury hearings.

The appellate court issued an alternative writ of mandate, ordering Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to open the transcripts or appear at the hearing and present his arguments as to why they should remain closed.

Judge Wilson sealed the transcripts of testimony which led to the indictment of 16 persons for alleged sales of narcotics.

As argument for barring the public from the grand jury records, the judge said he wants to protect the rights of those indicated to a fair trial.

The newspaper argued that the judge's action restrains citizens "from exercising their statuatory and constitutional rights to innspect and be informed of the contents of the grand jury transcripts."

WAR

Saigon. The South Vietnamese lost 242 men killed, the Communists 2,264.

The battle for Saigon was being told in the screams of the civilian wounded, the moans of the homeless, the bravery of the residents who dashed into the heat of battle to rescue the victims.

More than 50,000 civilians fled to Allied strongholds under the smoke blackened skies. Many were women clutching their babies.

Correspondents watching the fighting said as many as 150 refugees were caught up and wounded or killed in the crossfire from one battle today. The heaviest carnage was at the "Y" bridge which leads into Saigon from the south and was the scene of the heaviest fighting between American and Communist troops.

SHELTER WARNING

Jet fighter-bombers dropped their bombs just across the Saigon River from the heart of town. Communist mortars and rockets fell into the center of the city and Mayor Van Van Cua warned the two million residents and the refugees to dig bomb shelters and foxholes.

American officials expressed confidence the Communist threat could be met and said it was a harassment attack "to penetrate the city in an inexpensive attempt at publicity.....They are committing a minor number of forces."

The new attacks brought the Communists closer to Saigon's center than anytime since they launched their Spring offensive Sunday morning.

ALONG RIVER

U.S. spokesmen said some of the larger fires were in Saigon's Section Four, an area of residences, docks and warehouses along the Saigon River. Not only did the Viet Cong invaders burn scores of city blocks but more fires were started by jet planes strafing the enemy-held buildings.

Fires raged through Cholon, the Chinese sector of slums on the western side of Saigon, and at least 15 blocks of homes were burned.

Fires also raged through an area half a mile west of the Phu Tho racetrack and in the area to the south where American oil storage facilities are located.

A Japanese-language official Voice of North Vietnam broadcast monitored in Tokyo, said Ho made the appeal yesterday in a letter addressed to Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation — NFL — a political organization of the Viet Cong.

The broadcast quoted Ho as saying the United States is speaking of peace talks on one hand but escalating the war in Vietnam on the other.

HEARING

The charge was one of many detailed in a staff report of the House Armed Services Committee, parts of which have been reported, but which has never been officially published. Details of the report were revealed by Resnick during the third day of the hearings today.

The report, signed by committee counsel George Norris, concluded that Arnheiter used his command "for his own personal gain" and said the Navy had "adequate grounds" for questioning his ability to command the ship.

Committee chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-South Carolina, on the basis of the staff report, informed the Navy that the committee saw no reason for further inquiry into the case.

Charging that Arnheiter violated many orders and regulations, the report listed examples:

While assigned to patrol more than 10 miles offshore he "continuously brought his ship in close to shore looking for gunfire support missions" and failed to report he was leaving his assigned area.

He asked another American destroyer, the Bache, for a shore bombardment mission. "Although none was given, the Vance started firing at the shore. Officers of both the Bache and the Vance reported that the only signs of life in the area were sparks flying from bullets ricocheting on the rocks in the area."

He filed "false position reports" to his commanders so as not to indicate his ship "was off its expected patrol and engaging in unauthorized gunfire support missions."

The Vance "on its own" fired on a religious shrine on the South Vietnamese coast, although it was an area "where the United States did not want to have any firing as we wanted to win over the local people."

Yesterday afternoon, Resnick told of the case of another officer who, he said, received "even more shocking" treatment than Arnheiter.

He said Cmdr. Glenn Cheek, then commanding officer of the Ault, was summarily relieved of command in October 1966 after four crew members wrote letters "complaining that the commander had ordered his crew to work on Sunday while getting the ship ready to go to Vietnam."

sy is a bill that would provide $64 million more for the State Water Project. Most of the money would be taken from state tidelands oil revenue, which now goes to higher education.

The measure was defeated 6-6 in the Senate Finance Committee last week but Reagan said he still has hopes for a similar measure pending in the Assembly.

But if the measure fails "there'll be no tax increase as far as I'm concerned" to make up the shortage, said Reagan. Asked if he would support a $300 million education bond issue as the price of winning enough support in the legislature, Reagan replied he was neutral but "I would have to wonder very much whether the people of California would vote such a bond issue."

Belvedere Park-Rec Board Elects, Delays On Land

Roger Felton was re-elected chairman of the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission last night.

Mrs. Walter H. Buchen was elected secretary, replacing Mrs. Norma Bunker, who resigned.

The commission prepared recommendations to the council for maintenance of landscaping on streets and walking paths in 12 locations, on a continuing basis, Mrs. Buchen said.

Commissioners also decided to recommend against the city joining with Tiburon in a Fourth of July celebration.

A scheduled discussion of the possible acquisition by the city of a portion of Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way was not held, according to Felton. He said that City Mgr. William L. Cavalli is investigating procedures used by Tiburon, which recently decided to purchase almost two miles of the right of way for hiking and bicycle trails.

New member Mrs. Samuel Mann was seated.

Water Board Accepts Lone Bid On Mains

Directors of Marin Municipal Water District yesterday accepted a lone bid from Soiland Co. of Novato for $31,970 to relocate water lines at the entrance to Kent Woodlands, as the next step in the Corte Madera flood control project.

General Mgr. William R. Seeger said that, due to the urgency to complete the project, the board would consider the one bid, but he asked for recommendations from the engineering department and from Charles E. Murphy, assistant engineer for the county public works department, who was present.

In recommending, along with the district engineers, that the single bid be approved, Murphy presented the board with an advance payment of $46,203 from the county flood control district, for the work.

Marin Municipal Water District Board Also:

PURCHASES — Authorized Seeger to purchase various files, desks, chairs, draughting stools and metal shelves from Ray's Office Machines of San Rafael, for $2,332 and various valves from Groeniger Co. of San Francisco for $3,733.47.

AUTOMOTIVE BIDS — Accepted as the best bid, one from De Long Chevrolet for $2,533 for a half-ton truck. Lowest bid from Ames Ford Sales for $2,300 did not meet specifications, Seeger said. Accepted low bids of $3,610 for two half-ton trucks and $3,999 for two other trucks from S&C Motors and a low bid of $2,341 for a sedan from Ames Ford. Also decided to purchase two other half-ton trucks from De Long Chevrolet at $2,633 each for use by the new park rangers.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACT — Awarded a contract to National Electric Supply Co. of San Rafael, for $4,622 for electrical materials.

ORDINANCE — Agreed to proceed with the second phase of having the district's ordinance codified by having the Book Publishing Co. of Seattle publish 25 copies of the codified ordinances for $1,500.

EMPLOYMENT — Agreed to hire Peter Nivergelt as assistant engineer at $806 and Nicholas Roselli as a watershed patrolman at $568. Decided to hire Neil Brodsgar of San Rafael as a second appraiser for expansion of the Santa Venetia tank lot, if needed.

Mariner Cove Elects Officers

William Ridyard of 16 Tradewind Passage, Corte Madera, last night was elected and installed as new president of Mariner Cove Improvement Association. He replaces Howard C. Harvey.

Other officers elected were Carl P. Schug, vice president; Raymond Nann, treasurer, and Mrs. Donald C. Ralston, secretary.

Thief Gets Contents Of San Anselmo Car

Taken were $60 worth of electrical wiring and equipment, and two life jackets.

McCarthy Bid Ad Bill Goes To Senate

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee has approved a bill which would remove the requirement that legal publication of advertising of bids for public works contracts include the list of prevailing wage rates.

The committee approved SB513 by Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, despite a request from the California Newspaper Publishers' Association to delay action until a compromise bill is presented.

McCarthy's bill now will be before the Senate for a vote. Last year a similar bill was approved by the Senate, then defeated in the Assembly on the basis a study of the problem would be made and legislation offered.

Michael Dorais, legislative representative for CNPA, said such a study was made by the assembly committee on industrial relations and a bill was developed. That bill, AB1377 by Assemblyman L. E. Townsend, D-Torrance, is awaiting action before the committee.

Townsend's bill provides prevailing wage rates would have to be published only twice and that, if more than one contract were advertised in a newspaper, one publication of the wage rates would be sufficient. At present, some bid advertisements with the wage scale, must be published eight or 10 times.

Standard First Aid Course Announced

A standard first aid course will be offered at the Marin County Chapter of the American Red Cross beginning May 16 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the chapter house classroom, officials said.

The five-week course will be taught by Marc Mezzetta of Corte Madera. Registration may be made now at the chapter house, 712 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

Drath Headquarters Open In San Rafael

The office will be directed by Mrs. Frances Steadman, he said, and will "serve the dual functions of campaign coordination and community service." Drath invited Marin residents to take problems in housing, education, taxes and employment to his campaign staff, and said his staff would continue to provide the service after the election.

Proposed Novato Fire Budget Up $74,309

The preliminary budget of $508,976 for fiscal 1968-69 was received last night by the Novato Fire District Board, but no action was taken on it in the absence of a full board, according to Fire Chief George Cavallero.

Board President Peter Ferrarese was absent, so the board set 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday at Fire Station Number One for review of the budget, Cavallero said.

The proposed preliminary budget is $74,309 more than the current budget of $434,667.

The board approved the district getting quotations on a contract with Ray's Office Machine Service Inc. of San Rafael, to service all the typewriters and business machines in the district every two months.

It set 8 a.m., May 22, at the main fire station on Grant Avenue at Highway 101 as the time and place for opening bids on the 20,000-square-foot surplus portion of its Ignacio Boulevard site.

The board set 7:30 p.m. June 5 at the main fire station as the time and place to discuss plans for the construction of a drill tower with architects Gromme and Priestley.

The district will accept applications until June 15 for the position of firemen and will hold the written examination on June 29, Cavallero said. Those passing the examination will be placed on an eligibility list for future employment, the chief said.

The board approved the payment of $17,255 in bills and salaries.

Novato Policeman To San Jose Job

Mental Riches For California

DAVIS (AP)—California's resources, once largely from the land, now are largely from the mind, but equaly rich in promise, President Chrles J. Hitch of the University of California told a Charter Day audience here today.

"We in California are working to develop a harvest of technological and scientific resources as rich in promise of well being for the poeple of this state as were the fields and forests and mountains of the mid-19th Century, he said.

In preparing for the future, said Hitch, U.C. has had to grow faster than the state itself "both because of the unprecedented explosion of knowledge in the past few decades and because of the ever growing proportion of an ever growing population seeking higher education."

Firemen To Elect

The Tamalpais Volunteer Fire Department will elect officers when it meets at 7:30 p.m. today at the Tamalpais Valley Fire Station, 309 Poplar Avenue.

Marin May Feel Travel Tax Impact

A bill introduced in Congress would deprive local government officals of the present tax exemption on domestic air travel, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney reported today.

In a letter to the Marin County Board of Supervisors, Maloney referred to H.R. 16241, adopted by the House, imposing a tax on foreign air travel.

"We have learned, however, that the bill contains a proviso which repeals the existing exemption of state and local governments from the tax on domestic air travel," said Maloney.

He said the county auditor estimates that if the bill is adopted, the added cost to Marin County would be about $700 to $800 per year, and to local school districts about $9,000.

Although the amount involved is not large, Maloney said this is the first attempt by the federal government to tax local government directly in connection with the exercise of governmental functions.

Drunk Test Bill Stalled By One Vote

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The head of the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee tried again today to round up support for his bill that would make it easier to convict suspected drunken drivers.

The measure by Assemblyman W. Craig Biddle, R-Riverside, fell one vote short of Assembly approval yesterday after three hours of debate and parliamentary delays.

TO TRY AGAIN

After the 40-31 vote was announced, Biddle received permission to erase the tally and try agai nnext Wednesday.

Under Biddle's measure, a California driver arrested on suspicion of drunken driving would face a rigid, blood alcohol limit beyond which he would be presumed intoxicated. Once that evidence, based on blood or urine tests, was submitted in court, it would be up to the defendant to prove that he was sober.

DRUNK LEVEL

The level for intoxication would be one-tenth of one per cent alcohol by weight in the blood. A level half that high or below would presume sobriety.

"This not only convicts the guilty, but it acquits the innocent," Biddle said.

But opponents replied that the bill would threaten the common law tradition that a man is innocent until proven guilty. They also said defendants could choose the breath test, to which the presumtive limits wouldn't apply.

DEMOS OPPOSE IT

"We're about to take a backward step," said Assemblyman Frederick James Bear, D-San Diego. Only Democrats spoke in opposition to the bill, although three Republicans voted against it. Eight Democrats voted for it.

The measure would supplement the "implied consent" law against drunken driving enacted two years ago. Under that act, a licensed driver is presumed to give his consent to either a blood, breath or urine test if arrested on suspicion of drunken driving. If he refuses, his license is suspended for six months.

The award, celebrating achievement in literature, carries a $1,000 honorarium.

BART Loses Help From Bridge Tolls

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly's money committee has decided that raising tolls on the three San Francisco Bay bridges isn't the way to cure a rapid transit system fund shortage.

By an overwhelming voice vote yesterday, the Ways and Means Committee killed a measure to raise tolls to 50 cents on the San Mateo-Hayward, San Francisco - Oakland and Dumbarton bridges.

15 CENTS

The suggested boost—doubling for the San Francisco bridge and adding 15 cents for the other two — was to provide the Bay Area Rapid Transit District with a $144 million needed to complete the system.

Inflation and low original cost estimates led to the fund gap after voters in 1962 approved a $792 million bond issue to build the system, now well under construction.

ROAD BUILDING

Committee Chairman Robert W. Crown, D-Alameda, said several Bay Area legislators back a new plan to provide the money by diverting road building money in the three affected counties: San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa.

Crown said the toll-boosting bill by Democratic Assemblyman John Foran of San Francisco would have meant a delay of seven to 13 years in building another bridge proposed for the southern end of the Bay.

The presidential wife who died at the earliest age was the first Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, who was 22 at her death.

Forest Knolls Blaze Destroys Empty House

A spectacular fire, visible for miles, totally destroyed a vacant Forest Knolls home last night and threatened at least one other home.

The fire, reported by neighbors at 9:59 p.m., had engulfed the house by the time fire trucks arrived, Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom reported.

The fire quickly spread through underbrush and leaf mold up bank, coming within 150 feet of a neighboring home before it was controlled, Bloom said. Six 75-foot fir trees were also destroyed by the blaze.

Three trucks and five firemen had the blaze under control by 10:30 p.m., Bloom said, but they were hampered by the lack of adequate water. Bloom noted that only a two-inch line serves the area and water pressure was quite low. Also, there was no driveway to the home and firemen had to lay hose 30 feet up a steep path, Bloom said. Water was brought to the fire by tanker trucks, he said.

Damage to the partially furnished house, owned by Paul Dudun of San Francisco, was estimated at $9,000. The house had been broken into several times during the past year, Bloom said.

Cause of the fire is listed as possible arson and still is under investigation by Bloom and the Marin County Sheriff's office.

This was the second house fire in two days in the Forest Knolls area. Yesterday a blaze caused $17,000 damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian V. Jarrett on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Arson is not suspected in the Jarrett fire, Bloom said.

Sally Stanford Recount Fails To Win Council Seat

Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford) gained five votes yesterday in the recount she demanded of the April 9 Sausalito City Council election, but failed to win a council seat.

In the election Mrs. Owen finished fourth behind George C. Hoffman, 894 votes to 924. In yesterday's recount she got 899 but Hoffman still had 924.

Other minor changes turned up in the recount, but none had any effect. Alexander R. Imlay got 1,121 votes instead of the 1,125 counted in April; Robin Sweeny had 967 instead of 970; Douglas P. Ferguson had 352, unchanged, and Serge Trubach had 286 instead of 287.

Mrs. Owen and her attorney were at City Hall much of the day watching the count, which took from 9 a.m. until 5:35 p.m.

The special recounting board, appointed Tuesday night by the city council, comprised Mrs. Lillian Norris as inspector, Mrs. Vesta Partridge as judge, and Mrs. Grace Silva and Mrs. Anita Koenig as clerks. All four are experienced election workers.

Having failed to win a council seat in the recount, Mrs. Owen will not get back the $60 she posted to pay the board's salary for the recount. The money would have been refunded had she won in the recount.

Demo Group Slates Campus Unrest Forum

A forum on the turmoil at the College of Marin will be sponsored by the Marin Democratic Assembly at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the planning commission chambers at the Civic Center.

The panelists will be Thomas Skornia, a trustee of the college district; Samuel Schwartz, president of the Academic Senate, and Paul Tuttle, president of the Student Senate.

Switches Plea Before Trial

Melvin Razo, 22, of Berkeley, saved the county the cost of a jury trial yesterday by pleading guilty to second degree burglary just as his trial was to begin.

Police arrested Razo Oct. 30 after a high speed chase. They caught him fleeing from the house of Maurice J. Flantzman at 81 Crecienta Drive, Sausalito.

Judge Thomas F. Keating continued his case until June 3 for sentencing.

Napalm Approved

March Called Last Chance To Aid Poor

COMBINED AP & UPI

The Poor People's March continued gathering momentum across the country today, as its chief spokesman declared this may be the nation's last chance to deal peacefully with racism and poverty.

"We're going to turn this nation upside down and rightside up," said the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Abernathy, who succeeded the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as SCLC head, told about 1,000 Negroes in Birmingham last night that he will not permit violence when he leads the Poor People's March into Washington.

"I won't be violent—but I'm going to tell them that time has run out," he said.

Abernathy said he plans flying to Boston, Mass., today to begin the New England part of the campaign.

The first campaign contingent from the Midwest, including people from Milwaukee and St. Paul, arrived in Indianapolis by bus late last night after a rally in Chicago.

About 400 travelers, most of them Negroes, spent the night in Nashville, Tenn. about 300 of them rode air-conditioned buses from Marks, Miss., to Nashville yesterday.

Another group leaves from Marks today in a mule train, led by the Rev. Andrew Young, an SCLC leader and longtime associate of Dr. King.

In Durham, N. C., U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said yesterday the Justice Department is preparing for a variety of contingencies during the Poor People's March on Washington, "including the potential for violence."

Clark said Washington police and other law enforcement officials are being prepared to handle situations as "feasibility permits," in a talk at Duke University.

In observations on the profession of law enforcement, the attorney general said it is "the most sadly neglected among us."

"Policemen will determine more than anyone else if we get through the next summers without dividing the house we live in," he said.

$5,300 For Play Area Aides Asked

Marin County should appropriate $5,300 from recreation funds to hire two recreation aides to supervise a children's play area at St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church in Marin City, the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commissioners decided yesterday.

The recommendation will go to the Marin County Board of Supervisors next week.

Don Schilling, pastor of the church, asked for the appropriation in a letter to the commission. He said the church and the Maringate Nursery School will pay for the play equipment that will be added to the church play yard if the county would provide the money for two recreation aides to supervise the tots at $1.50 per hour.

Commissioner Howard Council said he visited the area and noticed play equipment lying idle in other open areas in Marin City.

Mrs. Robert Bastian, who runs nursery schools in Marin City, explained that open areas don't attract the children, and they all congregate in St. Andrew play yard.

Marin Parks And Recreation Commission Also:

TOM'S POINT—Asked Recreation Director Pierre W. Joske to continue exploring the possibility of a lease-purchase agreement for Tom's Point, near the east mouth of Tomales Bay, north of Miller Park. Joske said owner Joseph Brazil is willing to lease his property for 20 years.

Unless the county can use it beyond 20 years, Joske said, developing the area for recreation would not be a wise investment.

FISHING DERBY — James Vande Weg, park development coordinator, reported that the Petaluma Outdoorsmen will use Miller Park for a stingray and shark derby on June 30 from 3:30 a.m. to dusk.

ST. HILARY'S—Asked Joske and Mrs. Robert Bastian, president of the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, to see if federal aid is possible for purchase of about an acre and a half of land near the Old St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon. The property is on Vistazo West at Dakin Lane, upslope of the knoll where the Old St. Hilary's Church is located.

CORTE MADERA CREEK—Authorized Joske to explore possibilities of federal aid for development of a three-acre parcel of College of Marin property along Corte Madera Creek for recreation. Access would be via McAllister Avenue in Kentfield. Joske estimated a cost of $220,000 to develop the area for fishing, canoe launching, and other water-oriented activities, and parking for 30 cars.

BOLINAS LAGOON—Joske reported that the county agreed to file a condemnation suit for 7.8 acres of the W. C. Ferguson property on the east side of Bolinas Lagoon adjacent to Audubon Canyon Ranch.

Summerhill Decries Racism On Campus

BERKELEY (UPI) — President John Summerskill of San Francisco State College said yesterday his campus has "the most talented Black leadership anywhere in the country."

"But, I learned the hard way that our campus is a pretty racist place," said Summerskill, who has resigned effective at the end of the school year. He said the large number of middle-class white students show an "unwillingness to move over."

Officers Named By Foundation

Peter Ferrarese was named vice president. David Jones was elected treasurer. Mrs. Robert Romines was re-elected secretary.

The meeting was devoted to a discussion of how the foundation would get donations of labor and materials for Pioneer Memorial Park, Grundstrom said. The foundation has pledged about $30,000 for the development of the park, he said.

Hay was the largest field crop in California in 1967 with 7,579,000 tons produced, valued at $216 million.

New Garbage Contract Is Approved

A new three-year contract with Bay Cities Refuse, Inc., for approximately 300 units of low rent housing in Marin City was approved Tuesday by the Marin County Housing Authority.

New rates will be $3 a month until June 1969, and $3.15 a month for the following two years. Present rate is $2.60.

The authority, faced with three applicants for a single commercial space in building C-64 in Marin City's commercial area, bounced the applications back to the Marin City Community Services District for a new recommendation.

Applicants and the uses they propose are Catherine Johnson, a coffee shop; Artrice Lee, a cafe, and Alvina Roary and Linda Duval, a sewing shop. A request by the Catholic Social Service to use the space as a special project office was withdrawn.

The Marin County Housing Authority also:

BONDS—Set bid opening for 9 a.m. May 22 for sale of $590,000 worth of bonds for permanent financing of the 36-unit senior citizen housing project at Santa Venetia. Construction of the project is to be finished next week.

SALARY SURVEY — Authorized retaining the state personnel board for a classification and salary survey for employees, at a maximum cost of $1,000.

MANAGER — Was told that Melvin Randolph of Oakland, former Marin City resident, has been hired as manager of the Marin City project replacing Jack D. Holsclaw. Salary will be $717 to $870 a month.

ARCHITECT — Authorized hiring architect Worley Wong to conduct architectural review of plans for the Northgate turnkey project of senior citizens housing.

RESIGNATION—Learned that member Larry Sweeney has submitted his resignation to the community service district. The district board will nominate a replacement.

Richmond Bridge Car Count Is Up

An 18 per cent increase in the number of vehicles crossing the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge was noted last month as compared to April 1967, according to the Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

A total of 464,466 vehicles used the bridge last month as compared to 393,589 in April 1967.

ON THREE FRONTS

Financing Hurts Marin City Plans

There was almost unrelieved bad news for Marin County Redevelopment Agency's Marin City projects this week.

The agency was handed these jolts:

1. The proposed convalescent hospital has been scratched and developer Jack D. Kinney has withdrawn his proposal.

2. The federal government has found "no presently feasible government development" for Marin City.

3. Market operator Daniel Hayden has been unable to find financing for a proposed Marin City shopping cneter.

On top of that, the agency was accused at Tuesday night's meeting of being a "slum landlord" by Hayden's attorney.

Attorney Hugh G. Lawrence said the county is getting rent for Hayden's market "about equal to that charged for good space in an improved neighborhood shopping area," while the market is "a dilapidated group of surplus buildings."

Since financing is unavailable, Lawrence wrote, the county should "abandon this slum landlord tradition" by putting Hayden's rent into a fund for "upgrading and dignifying" the existing shopping area.

Under the circumstances, Lawrence wrote, it is the agency's duty "to provide reasonable shopping facilities for the residents of Marin City. It is past time for you to do so."

In a discussion of proposed moderate income housing in Marin City, several residents led by Sam Elkins of 57 Buckelew Avenue objected to the proposed development. Elkins said the apartments would cause traffic congestion and block views.

The apartments are proposed on Donahue Street opposite the end of Buckelew, between Donahue and Highway 101, and on Donahue uphill from Buckelew.

Elkins suggested the housing be built on the high school site and along Donahue between Buckelew and Park Circle.

The project is not imminent, an agency spokesman said, and no action was taken by the agency.

The agency canceled a June 4 public hearing on the convalescent hospital plan. Marin City residents objected last month that the hospital was an unsuitable use for the area.

The notice from the federal government ended, at least for the present, hopes raised late last year that a federal structure might be built in Marin City with resulting boosts to employment and tax base.

The Marin County Redevelopment Agency also:

RESIGNATION — Learned that board member Mrs. Claudette Harris has submitted her resignation tto the Marin City Community Service District, which nominated her. The district will nominate a replacement.

MARIN COUNTY PLANNING

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

(Last of a series)

When Mary Summers submitted her Marin County Planning Department budget for fiscal 1962 — the last bearing her name as planning director — she noted with some satisfaction that during the preceding year the department had completed the Bolinas/Stinson Beach master plan and "virtually completed" the San Geronimo Valley master plan.

It was ready to begin work on master plans for Kentfield, Las Gallinas Valley and Nicasio, she reported, and on a revised zoning plan for Richardson Bay.

Mrs. Summers gave the board of supervisors six months advance notice that she would leave on Feb. 28, 1962. On Sept. 13, 1961, the board appointed Billy D. Dobbs, who had been principal planner under Mrs. Summers, to succeed her on her departure. He started as planning director at $846 per month.

This promptly brought a complaint from the Marin Council for Civic Affairs, and from a minority of the planning commission. They felt the county should recruit outside the staff "to get the best."

The planning staff grew under Dobbs. The department's budget rose to $140,234 for fiscal 1963, to $172,303 for fiscal 1964.

Early in 1964, Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Byron W. Leydecker attempted to fire Dobbs, who by then was being paid $1,050 per month. They were voted down.

Three months later, Dobbs asked the supervisors to increase the planning staff by seven positions — from 15 to 22. Work on master plans and other projects was bogging down for lack of staff, he contended.

The board approved an increase of staff to 20 — two short of what Dobbs sought—and a budget increase for fiscal '65 to $215,665.

The following year, the staff was increased three more, to 24, and the budget was raised to $248,653 for fiscal 1966. But on July 13, 1965, only a few weeks after budget approval, Dobbs submitted his resignation, effective at the end of the year, after a long closed session with the planning commission.

This time, there was no attempt to fill the top job from within the department. The supervisors directed that the county administrator and personnel officer conduct a recruiting drive, nationwide.

On Dec. 21, 1965, the board picked its man: Paul C. Zucker, 31, an assistant to the chairman of the National Capital Planning Commission in Washington, D.C., with a master's degree in city planning from University of California and experience as land planner in Bucks County, Pa., and as planning director of Brookline, Mass. He was hired at $18,000 per year — $4,000 more than Dobb's final pay.

Within weeks of taking over, Zucker informed the planning commission that his staff would have to be increased, and announced that he and his staff members would not serve as "errand boys for the planning commission or the board of supervisors."

In some places, he noted, planning commissions had been abolished altogether. He wouldn't go that far in Marin, though, he said.

Zucker proved much more effective than his predecessors in getting additional personnel. For fiscal 1967, the planning staff was increased to 29.

And the planning budget, which had crept up to $111,578 in 20 years under Mrs. Summers and gone to $248,653 in four years under Dobbs, was boosted to $377,758.

Zucker was satisfied with the staff increase. For fiscal 1968, he asked for no more help and proposed a budget of $379,732, less than $2,000 above the previous year. But like all honeymoons, that of Paul Zucker with the board of supervisors had ended.

The board cut the budget back to $376,273, or $1,503 less than that of the preceding year — the first year since the county planning department came into being that it had been reduced.

For next fiscal year, Zucker asked a budget totaling $404,262. The county administrator cut that back to $387,697. Whether the supervisors will make further cuts remains to be seen.

Back in 1935, County Supervisor Frederick Thompson, in the report that started county planning in Marin, wrote:

"What is essential is not a visionary and theoretical set of ideas as to what it might be nice to do, but a program based upon hard facts relating to prospective population increases and the requirements of this population in terms of the things required for well balanced community life."

He little guessed the price tag.

Bulletproof Vest

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — A bulletproof vest of boron carbide that would stop a .30-caliber bullet has been announced by officials of the Carborundum Co. They said new methods of producing boron carbide—a tough, lightweight ceramic—allowed them to develop a vest that was light, flexible and relatively low in cost.

Increases In School Pay Voted

Salary increases for the administrative staff, office and maintenance personnel have been approved by the Fairfax School District Board.

Supt. H. Reginald Hammond, at Tuesday's board meeting, received an annual increase from $15,450 to $16,940. Salaries for the district's three principals were increased from a range of $12,000-$13,750 annually to $13,325-$15,125.

Salaries were set at $550-$750 a month for the director of maintenance and the financial secretary; $380-$480 for office secretaries; $450-$550 for custodians; and $475-$575 for maintenance men. All increases were based on a six-year schedule.

The increases will cost the district an additional $10,000 a year. Hammond said $598,680 has been budgeted for salaries in the proposed 1968-69 budget. The district plans to hold the tax rate to its present $3.035 level, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Allison appeared before the board to object to the sex education program being presented in the district. The Allisons, who have a son in the sixth grade, said sex education is a matter for the home, not the school, Hammond said. They also objected to the suitability of the programs for elementary school youngsters, Hammond reported.

The program is a series of films on family life by KQED, San Francisco educational television station. The final film in the series is being presented this week.

The trustees directed Hammond to review the program at the end of the current series and present a report to the board for evaluation at a later date.

Only one other complaint about the program has been received by the borad, Hammond said.

The Fairfax School District Board also:

Arlington To Be Only For Heroes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Burial in Arlington National Cemetery will be limited to Presidents, Medal of Honor winners and others marked for special honors by 1985.

Bobbie R. Beller, project engineer for Arlington, said yesterday the burial for national heroes will be in a special 15-acre tract—"a Westminster Abbey type of thing"—under a master plan for 1985.

Although there will be no room for burial of veterans and kin at Arlington by that time, Beller said, marble vaults will be built to hold the ashes of nearly 400,000.

Educator Decries Revealing Scores

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An East San Jose educator says publishing school test results results hurts staff morale.

In a conference yesterday during the first day of the statewide Parent-Teacher Association convention, Dr. William Jefferds, assistant superintendent of Alum Rock School District said: "In effect, you're telling some teachers they're idoing a lousy job . . . Testing is intended as a means of helping teachers to develop better programs."

More than 4,000 delegates are participating in the three-day meet. They were welcomed in the morning by Dr. Robert E. Jenkins, San Francisco school superintendent.

Import Sardines

PORTLAND, Me. (AP) — Some 250 tons of Norwegian sardines were imported here recently although Maine is the nation's largest exporter of sardines. "We haven't been able to depend on the sardine supply in Maine," a spokesman for the importer said. "our demand for sardines has been increasing each year, but the supply from Maine has been erratic."

McCarthy Asks Kennedy Debate

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Presidential candidates focused on Nebraska today and the second face-to-face primary encounter between Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy.

McCarthy had no time to spare in his effort to bounce back from a defeat by Kennedy in Indiana Tuesday, but he campaigns again in Nebraska today after returning overnight to Washington on unspecified urgent personal business.

The Minnesota senator's wife, Abigail, is ailing, but aides would not confirm that was the reason for McCarthy's sudden return.

DEBATE CHALLENGED

Before leaving last night, McCarthy renewed his challenge to debate Kennedy "man to man and face to face" before the Nebraska balloting next Tuesday.

McCarthy accepted the invitation of Lincoln television station KOLN to appear Sunday on a program with Kennedy and the third active Democratic presidential hopeful, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. Neither the Kennedy nor Humphrey camps has yet responded. Humphrey is not entered in the Nebraska contest.

In other developments:

NEW DRAFT PLAN

Nelson Rockefeller—The New York governor, in remarks today at Kansas State College in Manhattan, called for replacement of the "arbitrary and inequitable draft" with a lottery-type system. He also urged the voting age be reduced to 18, and a national post-Vietnam committee be formed to smooth the conversion from a wartime to a peacetime economy.

Richard M. Nixon—In a white paper issued in New York during a break in campaigning, the GOP presidential contender said "crime has become a first priority domestic crisis, a distinct threat to the social order, and it should be a matter of highest federal urgency." He advocated legal federal wiretapping under court supervision and revised rules to allow judge and jury to validate confessions as two key weapons against crime.

DEFENDS COSTS

Robert F. Kennedy—During a brief visit to New York before flying to Nebraska, the New York Senator said an objective analysis of his Indiana campaign would clearly show that he did not buy the election. "I visited every city of over 5,000 population and the figures were not out of line with what Sen. McCarthy spent," he said. McCarthy charged during the Indiana campaign that Kennedy was spending huge sums.

Hubert H. Humphrey—The Vice President told a United Auto Workers Convention in Atlantic City that America needs a system of "income maintenance" to support its poor. He stopped short of endorsing a guaranteed income for all Americans, but his stance brought him in line with Kennedy and McCarthy, who advocate some form of income supplement for the poor.

George A. Wallace--Oklahoma Secretary of State John Rogers certified the former Alabama governor's American Party for a spot on the state's November general election ballot, clearing the way for Wallace to be listed as a presidential candidate.

Cranston Calls For Ending Of Service Draft

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Democrat Alan Cranston told Sacramento City College students that the draft is "totally unfair" and should be replaced with a volunteer army.

"There is something wrong when a young man can't vote, can't marry without his parent's consent, can't sign a legal contract, can't buy a drink, but can be drafted and sent off to die," the former state controller said.

Similarly, state schools chief Max Rafferty, candidate for the Republican Senate nomination, said 10 days ago in Hayward: "I'll try to abolish the draft. I'm for a volunteer army of paid professionals."

Cranston said draft lotteries are "not the answer since they would only turn fundamental questions of justice over to Lady Luck, and deferments are equally unsatisfactory because of their high discriminatory nature."

He urged plans to abolish the draft now, not to wait for an end to the Vietnam war.

He also said government policies serve to discourage voluntary enlistment: draftees are paid only $90 a month and that draftees — along with convicts — are about the only Americans without pay raises since 1950.

In Sacramento yesterday Kuchel urged invitation of all Asian countries to full-scale Vietnam peace talks after preliminary discussions in Paris.

The state's veteran senator also told young Sacramento businessmen that American negotiators should be strong but patient with North Vietnamese obstructionists.

Meanwhile, Rafferty told the political forum yesterday at San Fernando Valley State College in Northridge that no Republican president has gotten the United States into a war.

Furthermore, he said, if the GOP wins this year, the new president will get America out of the Vietnam war.

His comments were at the same campus where Cranston, the day before, made the first major speech of his antiwar campaign.

In presidential politics, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy said there might be a McCarthy-Humphrey coalition in efforts to defeat his brother — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy — in California's June 4 Democratic primary.

Pleads Innocent

Thomas Lee Hancock, 22-year-old Treasure Island sailor, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court to charges that he burgled the Terra Linda house of William Roumbanis and stole two cars from him April 5. Preliminary hearing on the charge was scheduled for Wednesday.

Unruh's Son Faces Joy-Riding Charge

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — The 19-year-old son of Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh faces a preliminary hearing June 13 on a charge of joy riding in a 1936 Rolls Royce allegedly taken without the owner's permission.

Bradley Unruh was arraigned yesterday before Municipal Judge Robert S. Antram and released on $625 bail.

Burglars Invade Three Marin County Schools

Thieves broke into three Marin County schools over the weekend, according to reports filed by Marin sheriff's deputies yesterday.

Someone jimmied the front door to Lagunitas School and stole a labeler and a necklace holding a whistle and a key to the door of the school, deputies said.

Someone entered a Little League snack bar at Mary Silveira School in Marinwood by climbing through a vent. They stole three keys, officers said.

At Strawberry Point School at 117 East Strawberry Drive, a vandal broke into a portable classroom and sprayed the contents of a fire extinguisher over the desks and tables, they said.

Other thefts reported by deputies:

Someone broke into the car of Ronald Harris of 55 Bahia Way, San Rafael, while it was parked on North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, Monday and stole a $350 shotgun, plus a coat and the car's tonneau cover.

Francis Lake of 706 Hacienda Way, Santa Venetia, reported that thieves stole his small outboard boat motor, plus diving equipment, worth $350 in all, from his garage Friday.

Marin Weavers Will Show Fine Fabrics

By BARBARA HOSMER

A common interest in the creation of fine handwoven fabrics brings together groups of Marin people of every profession and age group to exchange ideas and weaving techniques.

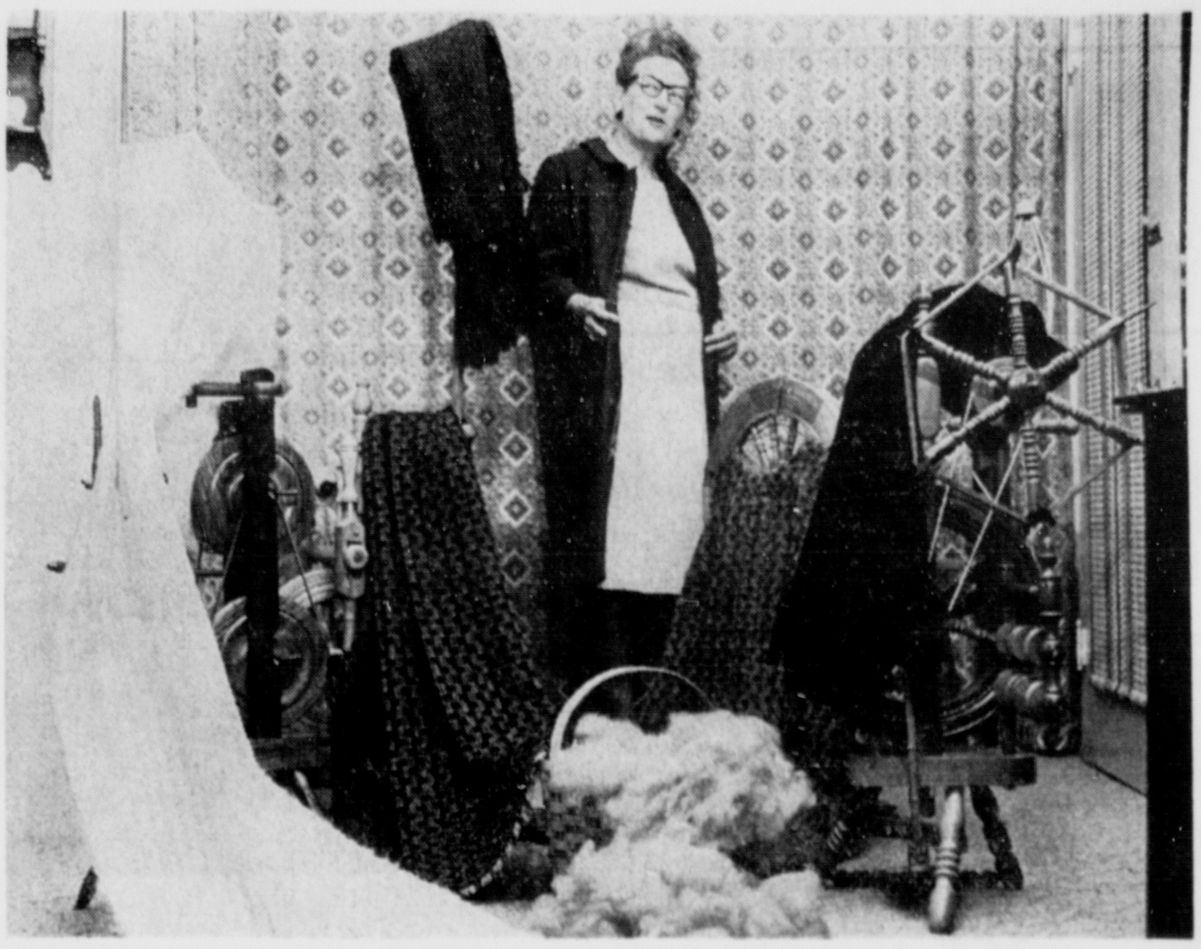
And as members of the Tamalpais, Redwood Empire Weavers Guilds and Gravander Spinners, all Marin based groups, they will host the annual Northern California Handweavers' annual conference on May 18 and 19. The 16th annual conference is expected to draw some 700 weavers from throughout the Pacific states, says Mrs. Clark Bowles of San Anselmo, chairman.

"The only reason the conference, which is open to the public on May 19 will be held at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco is that Marin hasn't the accommodation for it," she says.

The program will offer everything to do with weaving, from silk worms and the cocoon stage right through the spinning from the silk, to exhibition of antique and interesting handmade looms and spinning wheels loaned by members, and 20 participating guilds' displays of woven fabric and a style show of clothing made from their own handiwork.

At 10 a.m. May 18 Dr. Mary Elizabeth King, assistant professor of anthropology at Howard University and former curator at the Textile Museum, Washington, D.C., will speak on "Archaelogical Textiles of the New World," followed by luncheon and a fashion show of the members' work. The following day the entire exhibit area will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., with demonstrations all day.

Mrs. Edna Maynard of San Rafael is members' registration chairman, and Mrs. Betty Holcombe is co-chairman of the conference with Mrs. Bowles. Special features will be bookbinding, tapestry, silk threads, Indian basketry and stitchery.



SOME OF the work she weaves at home is shown by Mrs. Clark Bowles of San Anselmo, with spinning wheels on which she spins the fleece. Left in a white on beige mohair stole, next a handspun natural Shetland ordered specially from Scotland, a stole in various shades of red, on the wheel a mohair loop and wool in green tones made into a jumper dress and a black stole. The Shetland and the green mohair jumper were first ribbon winners. She wears a red coat of ribbon-winning woven fabric and pink dress woven of various textured threads, which she will show at the fashion show during the conference. At right is an antique spinning wheel from the Rhineland in Germany, unusual because of the reel attached on it. It will be exhibited at the weaving conference.

Bikini Time

FLANKED BY spinnings wheels made by her husband, Mrs. Bowles spins from fleece she has dyed to a deep orange-gold using onion skins. At left is a replica made by her husband of an early American spinning wheel in New York State with two treadles. The wood is black walnut. Center is a small castle type of birch and maple, and behind it is a big wheel type made of a very hard oak. At right is the Rhinelander spinning wheel, which Mrs. Bowles obtained from the estate of the noted Marin weaver Marianne Rauschnabel.

THE FRANKLIN PARKERS are a Greenbrae couple who share an interest in weaving and have several looms in their home. Here Mrs. Parker works on a tapestry from a cartoon, or plan, showing color and pattern, in this case a design of Mt. Fuji. Tapestry weaving requires an upright loom and uses a different weaving technique, with the threads pushed down with spindles.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

A Dansant At The Firehouse

By MOLLY MARIN

A group of Marinites has been invited to the dansant at the Davies' Green Street Firehouse in San Francisco on May 19 from 3 to 5 p.m. The San Francisco Sponsors will give the party, which will include a reading by Jack Aranson of San Francisco City Theater, which is the current beneficiary of the Sponsors.

Invited to attend are Messrs. and Mesdames Melvin H. Brown of Tiburon, John Kornfeld of Strawberry, James Potts of Mill Valley, Thomas A. Skornia of Ross, Dr. and Mrs. John Jansheski of Tiburon, the Rev. and Mrs. Angus Dun Jr. of Greenbrae, Theodore T. Boutmy of Sausalito, the Dewey Donnells of Sonoma and Hugh Owens of Tiburon.

A HOUSE GUEST of Mrs. Altheya Youngman in Sausalito is Mrs. Rollo M. Boas of Mabasa, Fiji Island. She and her husband, Rev. Rollo Boas, who was rector of the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Los Angeles, were sent by the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles to do missionary work in Fiji for three years. They have been there a year and a half.

Mrs. Boas plans to spend about four months in this country, where she has a daughter, Mrs. N. D. Thurmond, living in Tiburon.

Mrs. Boas has been taking the Laubach literacy course in the hope of training teachers in the method so that they can teach the Indians and Fijians who live far back in the hills where there are no schools.

MRS. VIRGINIA GALLAGHER and Mrs. Marie Stafford of Novato were cohostesses at Mrs. Gallagher's home honoring Patricia Ferrarese at a bridal shower. Patricia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ferrarese of Novato, will be married to Edward Brouder of New York City on June 29.

THE SEVEN Ciolino brothers of Mrs. Donovan H. Johnston of Novato are planning a party for the Johnstons' son, Donovan J. Johnston, who has recently returned from Vietnam. The brothers and their families, Anthony, Charles, Dan, Fred, Jim and Pete Ciolino, who live on the Peninsula, and Leo Ciolino of Lucas Valley, are planning the dinner party on Saturday in San Bruno. Donovan will leave the latter part of this month for Frankfurt, Germany, where he will be stationed for a year.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Could A Good Looking Boy Be Interested In A Mousy Girl?

DEAR HELEN:

There is a sailor whom I have known for three months. My problem is that I'm afraid what my mother says about him is true.

Every weekend he has leave he spends at our house. We go out in one of the family cars, and sometimes he eats dinner with us. He never offers to help around the house, though he is well-mannered and always compliments us on our cooking.

He has never said he liked me, or even told me I look pretty, which of course I don't.

My mother claims he comes just for free meals and cheap dates. She says anyone as good looking and outgoing as he is wouldn't be interested in somebody as quiet and mousey as me.

I don't want to believe her. Should I ask him why he keeps coming, quit seeing him, or. . .?

—PLAIN OLD MOUSEY ME

DEAR POMM:

I wouldn't trust the judgement of a mother so unthinking, imperceptive — and perhaps jealous — that she brings her daughter up to feel plain and mousey!

Your sailor may not be serious, but you're enjoying his company. He makes you proud and happy to have a guy others want. You need that. It's more than enough for now, so don't push him. Above all, don't take any more belittling from mama! It's time you stopped seeing yourself as she sees you.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I am of today, now. I have tried to explain a little of that now in the following:

To my father, who is ashamed of me, because I seem not his kind of man:

Alas, I am but a child,
My smile
My laugh
My unconcern
All not hollow
Not innocent
One-third of my life past yet less than half yours.
You frown at my smile, my laugh
And call my unconcern irresponsibility —
Because I build my castles of dreams and sand
And not of stone or mortar.
I have no future for you to see.
I need not lay it down — I see it.
Forget not I have no family yet
Only paths to walk to make myself full—
To see where I will build my castle
And what shape it will take.
And I ask, be patient. . .
Do not condemn what you see
Not realizing what you do not see.
Smile with me or, if you cannot,
Let me smile, because I see my security —
And it will be seen when the time comes. — DAVID

DEAR DAVID:

I seldom print poetry, but I feel compelled to print yours. Many parents won't understand it, and that's a pity, for if they'd only remember back, they might recall their youth through your words.—H.

Use Baby Cream To Soften Midriff

NEW YORK (UPI)—Baby your bare midriff. Maybe you've already whittled down the waist in anticipation of fashion trends, but how about the midriff?

Predictions are that by summer, mid-sections everywhere will be bared. Beauty experts say one way to smooth and soften this area of skin is to use baby cream. It rubs in to become invisible as it softens the skin. The cream doesn't come off when you swim.

Roni Gray Is Engaged To Marry

Roni is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Gray of Ignacio and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eslinger of Novato.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Thompson.

Abortion Reforms Favored In Survey

NEW YORK (WMNS)—A survey of a cross-section of New York residents shows that abortion law reform is favored by a large majority of followers of all three major religions as well as by persons of various ages and educational levels.

Reform was favored by 83 per cent of Protestant, 72 per cent of Roman Catholics, and 98 per cent of Jews. The reform they favored would make legal abortion possible not only if the mother's life was at risk but if it would safeguard her health, in case of fetal deformity, and if pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

Holy Names Alumnae Elect First Staff

First president of the newly formed Marin County Alumnae of the College of Holy Names in Oakland is Mrs. John Lawrence Richard of San Rafael.

"The object of the Marin chapter is to promote interest in the college and to provide a good relationship between the college and its alumnae," according to Mrs. Richard.

A current project is preparing a Marin caravan for Homecoming Day on the Oakland campus May 11. Plans for a fall event are being considered. Members of the college alumnae who live in the county, and members of the alumnae of other Holy Name colleges are invited to membership.

Marie Richard, a former vice president of the Marie Rose Guild of the Holy Name Sisters, has been active in college alumnae affairs for 15 years. She also belongs to the San Domenico Service League. She received her degree from the College of Holy Names.

The Richards, who have lived in Marin for 13 years, have one daughter, Celeste Marie, 9.

Gardening on the grounds of the family home in Los Ranchitos is one of Marie's hobbies. She also enjoys cooking, particularly summer barbecues, and singing at church affairs and weddings. Another interest of the Richards is the Kentfield Astronomical Club, which meets at their home for a "sky party" once a month. The new president enjoys entertaining at home, and refinishing furniture.

Christine Chisholm And Edward Maguire Will Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick A. Chisholm of San Rafael announce the engagement of their daughter, Christine Elizabeth Chisholm to Lt. Edward F. Maguire of Denville, N.J.

Lt. Maguire's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Maguire and his sister and brother are Rosanne and John Maguire, all of Denville. Lt. Maguire was graduated from the University of Montana and is serving with the Medical Supply Corps, U. S. Army at Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

The bride-elect is a graduate of San Rafael High School and Monterey Peninsula College. She will receive her degree and teaching credential from Washington State University in June. Christine's sisters are Mrs. Jerome Northbrook of Van Nuys, and Mrs. William Zeeb of Petaluma. Her brother, Rod Chisholm, is serving with the Army Meteorology Team at Fort Monmouth, N.J.

The engaged couple plan a wedding in July in San Rafael.

Don't Get In Shape With Tennis

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tone your body slowly, health experts suggest. If your most active sport during winter was television watching or driving the kids to school, don't get in shape by playing four sets of tennis the first warm day.

Before starting to slim down, the best course is to see your doctor for a checkup. Get diet help from him and follow his instructions.

BONNIE NICHOLS

Miss Nichols Is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Nichols of Tacoma, Wash. announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie, to Warren K. Davis of San Rafael.

The future bride attended Mount Tahoma High School in Tacoma and the College of Marin. Bruce Nichols is her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kenneth Davis are the future bridegroom's parents. He was graduated from San Rafael High School and the University of California where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi. Kerry and Gail Davis are his sisters.

Warren is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Davis of Berkeley.

Why should I waste my time?

I can't afford average reading speeds

"Slow readers work harder for their grades," Lorna Lawson says. "Without Readak, I'd be just another average reader. That's not good enough.

"I've got to enter the college that's best for me. And I want to do other things besides study when I get there."

Lorna knows so-called average readers are ten years behind the times. Back in 1958, 250 words per minute was an average reading speed. But it's all different today. Ask any college sophomore. You'll be told 400 to 500 words per minute is a must for ordinary study.

"I've learned one thing," Lorna says. "Knowing how to read fast isn't enough. To stay ahead, you've got to know how to skim at least 3,000 words a minute when the pressure's on. And you need to understand everything you read."

Many people agree with Lorna. They're the ones who know what it takes to make it in school today.

Class presidents, school paper editors, valedictorians, scholarship winners, athletes and many others choose Readak speed reading programs.

These outstanding people are already superior students. But, after Readak training, they won't need to work as hard to keep up with heavy reading loads in senior high or college classes. They'll have more free time.

At Readak, average readers break out of the pack and stay ahead. Faster reading gives them time for all the things they've been missing. Effective reading not only helps them learn more. It creates time for other things.

It's no accident that Readak programs have been conducted at Santa Clara University, Menlo College, San Francisco College for Women, Notre Dame College, and Westmont College—to name a few.

Lorna Lawson is a senior at Convent of the Sacred Heart, in Menlo Park. Her grade point average is 3.8.

What's more, scientists, technicians and professionals at NASA Ames Research Center, Lockheed Missile and Space Division, Ampex, Stanford Research Institute, and many major industries have called on Readak to help improve their reading effectiveness.

"Readak's program is exciting and stimulating," Lorna says. You'll learn all forms of hand-pacing, skimming, scanning, overviewing, pre-reading, outlining, technical and critical reading. In other words, you'll learn everything it takes to read two, three or even four times faster.

Readak students use these new skills in their first class. Grades go up. Study is easier. Reading assignments become exciting challenges, not causes for worry.

This summer you can develop the reading skills you'll need in the fall, and for many years to come.

Readak's small classes make it possible for you to learn with people you know and understand.

Our free reading test is nationally standardized. It shows you where you stand. It tells us exactly what special training you need. If you don't take the program, there's no charge for the test.

Now's the time to plan for tomorrow's success.

Our first two summer sessions are already filling up. But there's still room for those who sign up now. Here's our schedule:

Session 1
Tuesday/Thursday June 19 thru July 18

Session 2
Monday/Wednesday
July 8 thru August 7

Session 3
Tuesday/Thursday
July 23 thru August 22

MARIN COUNTY Alumnae Chapter of the College of the Holy Names is planning a "Marin Caravan" for the annual Homecoming Day on the Oakland campus Saturday.

This year's homecoming honors the centennial of the Sisters of the Holy Names in California. On May 10, 1868, six young sisters arrived in the Bay Area to establish their first school. Today, 548 teaching sisters of the order instruct more than 22,000 students in 38 schools throughout the state. The sisters have been in San Anselmo since 1935 and at Marin Catholic since 1949.

Members on the caravan committee are Mesdames E. J. Plocki, Sausalito; Robert Flint, Tiburon; Miss Helenann Sheehy, Fairfax; Mrs. John Richard, San Rafael; and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, Novato.

MEMBERS OF the Millwood Unit of Marin Foundation are finalizing plans and working on decorations for their annual barn dance Saturday.

This year members and their guests will be celebrating the anniversary of this fund-raising event, which was launched 15 years ago at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. The Marin Foundation was initially known as "Friends of Arequipa" in Marin County.

Unit Chairman, Mrs. Henry Eckhard, comments that the guest list for this party rarely changes from year-to-year as reservations, in many cases, are requested a year in advance.

THE GRADUATING class of Dominican College of San Rafael will dine and dance in Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins Hotel on Saturday.

Susan Porrazzo of San Francisco is general chairman for the senior exclusive assisted by Drene Bernardoni and Carol Bruns of San Rafael, Margretta Shine of San Anselmo; Jacqueline Farrell, Janet Landtbom, Mary Louise Mann and Susan Warner of San Francisco; Martha Devitt, Long Beach; Eileen Machado, Sacramento; and Karen Flynn of Redding.

Those planning to attend have been asked to dress in whatever style suits their comfort or fancy, whether it be full length formal or gardening togs.

Mrs. James Neely, fund-raising chairman, and Mrs. Donald Leary, party chairman, are co-chairman for the event, which is one of the school's two big fund-raising projects of the year.

Festivities will start at 9 p.m. Supper will be served at midnight when an auction will also start. Among the 400 prizes donated are paintings and fabrics.

During the evening there will be entertainment by bagpipers and ballet dancers.

Stealing May Be Fostered

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (WMNS) —Some kinds of family behavior "give children a subtle encouragement to steal." This is the view expressed by Dr. Marshall Shearer of the University of Michigan Children's Psychiatric Hospital here in an article in Clinical Pediatrics, a medical journal.

The physician described such family behavior as follows:

Conspiracy of secrecy. A parent and the child agree not to tell the other parent about the theft, implying that the parent from whom the secret is kept wouldn't care, or wouldn't understand, or would be too harsh.

Allowing the child to keep the stolen item or relieving him of making restitution by making it themselves, without requiring that he repay them over a period of time.

Refusal of parents to take action unless the child admits the theft, even when there is no doubt he did so. This encourages the child to lie, the physician pointed out, especially since he knows that the adults know he did it.

Dr. Shearer feels that the child himself should return the stolen item. Parents can accompany him on such a mission to give him moral support, but he should be the central actor in the drama.

Parents' response to stealing should be one of concern, mild surprise, disappointment in the child—and willingness to stand by him and help him shoulder the responsibility, the doctor recommended.

A 'ROADEO' FOR YOUNG CYCLISTS

Two bicycles will be awarded as prizes in a bicycle safety "roadeo" at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow on B Street between Fourth Street and Fifth Avenue in San Rafael. Youngsters will compete in two age groups, 8 to 10, and 11 to 13. Here, San Rafael police Lt. Raymond Bleasdale (left) and Officer Henry Ingwersen measure skid marks in a test run. Kettenhofen, Arrigoni Argue Marin Issues

Transportation and economy in government were the vital issues today as Second District Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen and Peter R. Arrigoni, his challenger in the June 4 election, appeared on radio KTIM's "Sounding Board."

Arrigoni, a former Fairfax city councilman, criticized the failure of the supervisors to develop a "balanced transportation" plan for Marin.

URGES ACTION

"There should be no more talk and no more studies, re-studies and re, re-studies," he said. "It is the time for action."

Kettenhofen, now chairman of the board of supervisors, said a plan for improved public transit and road development had not been adopted because the county awaited the "acquiescence" of the cities.

The "balanced transportation" plan was called for in 1966 after cities in the Ross Valley could not agree on a route for Highway 17, the proposed route from Highway 101 to West Marin.

HIGHWAYS OPPOSED

Arrigoni, assistant manager of a San Francisco investment firm, said he was opposed to an east-west highway through the Ross Valley, and Kettenhofen said he was, too.

Arrigoni supported widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard from San Anselmo to Fairfax, improvement of the San Anselmo Hub and construction of a scenic parkway, not a freeway, "through unpopulated areas."

Kettenhofen said he is on record as favoring a scenic road through a northern ridge route.

The candidates swapped charges that each had permitted rising costs in government during terms in office.

VOTES CITED

Arrigoni asserted that Kettenhofen had voted against formation of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission, undergrounding of utilities in new developments and had "destroyed the West Marin Plan" by leading a fight for a higher residential density than had been proposed.

Kettenhofen said that he disagreed with plans to include the College of Marin football field in a BCDC moratorium on bay fill and denied the proposed density of 1.15 units per acre in West Marin would spoil the area.

Accusing Arrigoni of failing to make constructive proposals and of "throwing bricks," Kettenhofen said that, of the 25 campaign promises he made four years ago, 17 have been approved by the supervisors, with the rest under consideration.

MARINCELLO STAND

Arrigoni said he opposed the planned development of Marincello, saying the area was "one of the finest areas in the world" and should be preserved.

Kettenhofen, who voted in favor of Marincello as a supervisor, said it "is obvious that my opponent has not done his homework because he should know that Marincello is not a beautiful area, but windswept and foggy." He said he would not have supported construction of the community had it been proposed for less secluded area.

"Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Large Oak Tree Wins Survival

The Larkspur Parks and Recreation Commission last night spared a large oak tree, object of disagreement among residents in the West Baltimore Avenue area, but directed that it be supported by cables to insure public safety.

The commission also directed the city staff to trim one of the tree's large branches over the residence of the complainant, George R. Kohler, 233 West Baltimore Avenue.

Kohler had declared the 45-foot-tall tree, between city curbing and the sidewalk, was unsafe and cracking the sidewalk. He requested its removal.

A petition signed by 17 neighbors, however, was presented to the commission asking that the tree not be destroyed. Robert C. Bundy, parks and recreation director, said these opponents contended there was no hazard or nuisance.

The commission also recommended the city council amend the city's encroachment ordinance to give residents "reasonable" latitude in removing small and immature woody growth on city property adjacent to their own property in nuisance cases. Under present ordinance wording, a permit is required for removal or trimming of any such shrubbery.

$30,000 For Water Transit Study Asked

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — A $30,000 appropriation to study the feasibility of water transportation between San Francisco and Marin was recommended yesterday by the finance committee of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors.

The committee's recommendation is expected to go before the full board later this month.

The Marin Transit District board last month voted to contribute $15,000 toward the $45,000 study, providing San Francisco pays the rest of the cost. The district and the city would contract with consultant to do the study under a joint powers agreement.

Advocates of water transportation long have maintained that no detailed study of it ever has been done.

Four-Car Span Crash Causes Injuries To Two

Two persons were injured in a four-car crash on the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge at 5:30 p.m. yesterday.

Southbound cars driven by Janice L. Chontos, 25, of 20 Woodward Avenue, Sausalito, and Susan D. Castagna, 29, of San Francisco stopped in commute traffic, according to the California Highway Patrol.

But a car behind, driven by Raymond L. Watson, 30, of 1093 Acme Court, Novato, was rammed in the rear by a fourth car, driven by James G. Doyle, 53, of San Francisco, starting the chain-reaction collision, patrolmen reported.

Janice Chontos and a passenger in the Castagna car, Barbara Phelps, 28, of San Francisco, were treated at Park Emergency Hospital an San Francisco.

Auto Looting Seen

A camera and pair of binoculars valued at $230 were stolen yesterday afternoon from a tourist's car in Sausalito. Police said the thief, who was seen by a witness but not caught, broke a window to enter a car owned by Harold F. Erichson of Marlboro, N.J. The car was parked on Humboldt Street behind Bank of America.

Ancient Mail Plane Ends Historic Journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 1918-model biplane, only surviving example of the type of aircraft that provided the world's first air mail service, completed a transcontinental flight today with a hero's welcome for its pilot.

Flying instructor William J. (Bill) Hackbarth, 67, a pioneer air mail pilot, set the plane down at Washington National Airport shortly before 11 a.m.

Hackbarth, a tall, huskily built grey-haired man, handed a packet of envelopes to Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson, and then gave Watson a mail bag as a gift from the mayor of Santa Paula, Calif., Hackbarth's home town.

Also on hand to greet the flyer was his wife, who left San Francisco in the family automobile the same day her husband started his flight, April 17.

The airplane that made the flight was a reconstructed de-Havilland 4B mail plane, number 249, that crash-landed Dec. 15, 1922 in the Wasatch Mountains near Coalsville, Utah.

Forty-three years later members of the Air Mail Pioneers hiked to the crash area and recovered about 600 pounds of the wreckage. This material was moved to Santa Paula and combined with other parts for the reconstruction.

The plane will be presented formally to the Smithsonian museum Wednesday on the 50th anniversary of the establishment of air mail service.

Body Found In Car; Gun Shot Blamed

A 32-year-old Los Ranchitos man was found shot to death today in his car parked near the Marin County Civic Center.

The fatal wound in the chest apparently was self-inflicted, said Asst. Coroner Keith Craig.

Leon W. Minney of 124 Merrydale Road, Apt. 14, was found at 3:30 a.m. by his roommate, Leo Simon, who went looking for him after discovering a note Minney left in the apartment.

In the note, Minney said he could not continue his struggle for life any longer, according to Craig.

Described as an assistant agent with the Calmar Steamship Corp., Minney, sometimes known as Dale Minnie, was a native of Oklahoma.

He came to California six years ago and moved to Marin about three years ago.

He was divorced and is survived by a sister, Gaynell McGinty of Porterville, Tulare County. Funeral is pending an autopsy at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Sheetrock Theft

Bernard R. Alvers, foreman for Larry Larson, Inc. of San Franchisco, subcontractor for the San Marin High School, yesterday reported to Novato police that someone had taken 136 sheets of 4-by-8-foot sheetrock, valued at $680, sometime between 5 p.m. Tuesday and 7:30 a.m. yesterday, from the construction site.

Vacancy Still Remains On Bolinas Board

The Bolinas Community Public Utility District board announced last night it is still taking written applications for a board vacancy left by the resignation of Raymond F. Sarraille, who has moved out of the district.

The board agreed last night to hold a special meeting later this month to hear a report on a meeting last week on plans for a joint sewer system for Bolinas and Stinson Beach. No date was set.

At last week's meeting were engineers, attorneys and financial consultants from the Bolinas district and the Stinson Beach county water district plus a representative of the regional water quality control board which is advocating the districts' merger.

The board received estimates from two companies for drilling and a pump installation for a district emergency water supply, but returned the estimates to N. F. Keyt of Cotati and Weeks Drilling and Pump Co. of Sebastopol for clarification.

The first successful attempt to grow hops on a large scale in the United States was made in Eaton, N.Y., in the 1820s.

Sausalito Attorney Asks Marincello Rezoning Void

A suit to block construction of Marincello, the controversial planned community, began trial in Marin Superior Court yesterday with two tedious hours devoted to introduction of such evidence as county zoning regulations and planning commission minutes.

Trial of the suit, brought against the County of Marin by the City of Sausalito and two couples whose land neighbors to Marincello, was to continue late this morning before Judge Harold J. Haley.

Attorney Robert P. Praetzel, appearing for the city, said the rezoning of the Golden Gate headlands area for Marincello should be nullified for three reasons:

The county gave only six days notice, instead of the required 10 days, before the board of supervisors' hearing which resulted in rezoning the land to planned community development.

The planning commission failed to submit a summary of evidence at its hearing on the proposal to the board of supervisors.

In approving a master plan for the planned development, the supervisors actually zoned the land for such uses as industrial, commercial and high rise apartments. Since this constituted a rezoning, the master plan should have been treated as a zoning ordinance.

E. Warren McGuire, Gulf Oil Corp. and the Frouge Corp., owners of Marincello, said Sausalito's case rests on technical defects, which state law says should not be held fatal to the project.

McGuire also charged that the city waited a year before filing suit and, thus, lost any interest it had in the issue through lack of diligence.

Personnel Commission Member Reed Resigns

Victor P. Reed, member of the Marin County Personnel Commission for two years, announced today he will resign from the commission June 1.

"The contribution which I can make to a meaningful management-employee relations program for Marin County is debatable," said the Mill Valley attorney in a letter to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Reed played a major role in drafting the county's new employer-employee relations policy, adapted in January and amended iin subsequent meetings.

On April 23, the supervisors made several amendments. One allows employee bargaining units to appeal to the supervisors if their request for certification is modified by the personnel commission.

Reed had opposed such an amendment, pointing out that the personnel commission would be useless if bargaining units can appeal every complaint.

"I don't think they should have changed the appeal precedure, but that's not my problem," said Reed this morning at his San Francisco law office.

He said the main reason for his resignation was the pressure of his law practice.

Kennedy Drive Aides Appointed

The co-chairmen of the Marin County Kennedy for President campaign today announced the appointment of several campaign leaders.

Gordon Pusser of Corte Madera was named treasurer, Mrs. Jules Becker of Ross was named women's chairman, Robert Politzer of Sausalito as area precinct chairman, and Gareth Sadler of Ross as finance committee chairman.

The finance committee includes Byron W. Leydecker of Sausalito, Elizabeth Smith Gatov of Kentfield, Robert Harmon and Cameron Baker Jr. of Belvedere, Robert Carrow of Novato, Nancy Swadesh of Tiburon, John McIvor of San Anselmo, Robert Mertle of San Rafael and Pusser.

A woman's suffrage law was passed in the territory of Wyoming in 1869.

Garbage Collection Bidding Being Asked

Bids for garbage collection from the Mill Valley Air Force station and from Hamilton Air Force Base were called today by the base procurement office at Hamilton.

Bids on the Mill Valley service will be opened at 2 p.m. next Tuesday and for Hamilton at 2 p.m. May 17.

Berry Given Senior Honor Nomination

Jesse E. Berry, long-time civic leader in Marin City, was nominated last night by the Marin City Homeowners and Improvement Association for Marin County senior citizen of the year.

Berry, of 29 Burgess Court, is chairman of the Marin City Community Services District Board and has been in community work for 25 years, working with the Boys Club of Southern Marin and helping the community get the new Manzanita Community Center dedicated last month.

The association set installation of new officers for a 4 p.m. May 26 at the community center, the ceremony to be followed by a 4 to 6 p.m. party honoring all Marin City senior citizens.

Youth's Marijuana Count Is Dismissed

John L. Fish, 20, of Mill Valley, was cleared in Marin Municipal Court Tuesday of a charge that he was in a place where marijuana was used in Sausalito Nov. 18.

Judge Hadden W. Roth dismissed the charge against him on grounds of insufficient evidence.

Fish and four others were arrested at 55 Sunshine Avenue after someone allegedly offered a marijuana cigarette to a Sausalito policeman who came to the door in plain clothes.

John F. Chafin, 23, of Mill Valley, is awaiting a July 8 jury trial on a charge that he possessed marijuana that day.

The district attorney Tuesday asked that the cases of Nancy Lee McClary, 23, of no fixed address, and Terry A. Hensley, 23, of San Diego, be continued until Nov. 7 for possible dismissal of misdemeanor charges filed after their arrest that day.

The case of Richard R. Savage, 20, of Mill Valley, also facing the misdemeanor marijuana charge, was continued until July 8 for possible dismissal. Savage faces a felony charge of selling narcotics to a drug abuse agent.

Board Schedules Budget Sessions

Budget hearings before the Marin County Board of Supervisors will start June 17 and continue through June 26.

During the eight days, the supervisors will delve through the various budget requests, department by department.

The budget hearings were originally scheduled for June 10 through 19, but the dates were changed because Supervisors Ernest N. Kettenhofen and William A. Gnoss have been invited to Colorado Springs for an aerospace tour on June 11 through 13.

Sister City Unit Created To Aid Sausalito Projects

Officers of the People-to-People Committee were named Tuesday night at officer of the Sister City Fund, a non-profit subgroup created to raise money for Sausalito's People-to-People program and for the student exchange program with Vina Del Mar, Chile.

W. Bruce Shafer was named chairman; Donald Olsen, vice chairman; James Simonds, treasurer; Kathryn Plocki, secretary, and L. Loren Jay and Earl Thompson, directors at large.

The student selection committee announced it has chosen an exchange student and an alternate to go to Vina del Mar this summer, but has not yet met with the pupils' parents. The choices will be announced next week.

The group was told that Frances McCarty, last year's exchange student tto Chile, and Hector Brito, Chilean student now at Tamalpais High School, will speak about their experiences May 16 at a Sausalito Rotary Club luncheon.

The president of Homestead Valley Improvement Club is Othell G. Mallouf.

Residents Given Renewed Permits

The Larkspur Planning Commission Tuesday night extended permission for eight families to continue residing in a commercial zone for five years, until Jan. 18, 1973.

The eight applicants for the variances are part of 20 residents in an area roughly bordered by Magnolia and Locust avenues, Post and Cane streets. The area was zoned commercial 20 years ago, officials said, with the residences existing that time.

A special hearing on applications of the remaining 12 was scheduled for 8 p.m. May 21 at City Hall. The commission also granted permission to the College of Marin for a grading permit east of College and Magnolia avenues.

Antisecrecy Bill Almost Sidelined

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A constitutional amendment to open to the public meetings of the University of California Board of Regents appeared headed for the legislative graveyard yesterday in a hearing before the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee.

The author of the amendment, assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, got the committee to postpone action on it when it became clear that a majority would vote to send it to the Constitutional Revision Commission for study.

Instead, Bagley had his amendment (ACA 14) held over for one week to try to get enough votes to pass it to the floor of the upper house. The amendment already has been passed by the Assembly. The Assembly passed a similar amendment last year, but the Senate killed it.

The regents in February defied an opinion by the Legislature's attorney that the Bagley Act of 1967 extended the state's anti-secret meeting law to their meetings. The act extended the law to all state agencies.

Bridge Rust Found; $460,000 To Repair

Unexpected rust has been found in major suspension cables of the Golden Gate Bridge, and preliminery repair will cost some $460,000, a committee of the bridge and highway district was told today.

Gen. Mgr. James Adam said "unexpected corrosive conditions were found in a $275,000 inspection of the bridge by Ammann and Whitney, the New York engineering firm.

The firm's estimate of $460,000 was to replace only 12 of 250 pairs of cables on the bridge, Adam told the building and operating committee. He said these 12 "are believed to be the worst of the lot."

The committee endorsed Adam's recommendation that the repair work be sub-contracted through Ammann and Whitney to American Bridge. The work itself would cost $319,608 plus about $140,000 for engineering by Ammann and Whitney, Adam said.

The bridge district's engineer, Robert E. Shields, told the committee that there would be "some very difficult problems" if the repair was put out to competitive bid. Director Lowell Edington of Napa County agreed, commenting that "there's no time while we are on the operating table to call for bids on doctor's services."

The committee's endorsement will be considered by the full board tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the administration building.

No Decisions In Operation Of Fire Unit

Marinwood fire commissioners and the Marinwood Community Services District directors met jointly last night to discuss 'operating procedures" of the fire department, but no specific decisions were made, according to Robert Morris, services district board member.

"A lot of the people are not aware of the procedures and some problems come up," said Morris. "The purpose was to review and clarify the procedures. It was just a clarification and orientation meeting for the people involved."

Morris said he could not give specifics on what procedures, or problems, were discussed.

Chairman Robert J. Cawley of the fire commission and other members of the commission could not be reached for a report on the meeting.

Next regular meeting of the Marinwood Fire Commission is set for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Marinwood firehouse.

Barham Endorsed

Clay Barham, candidate for the Republican nomination in the Seventh Assembly District, last night was endorsed by the San Rafael chapter of the California Republican Assembly. He is opposing the incumbent, William T. Bagley, who is seeking a fifth term.

Patrol To Fete Retired Officer

California Highway Patrol officers will hold a dinner-dance Saturday at the Meadow Club in Fairfax to honor Sgt. James J. Shanahan.

Shanahan retired last January after 25 years of service on the patrol.

Officers attending Saturday are expected to come from as far away as Sacramento, patrolmen said.

Dinner will be served at 8 p.m., following a no-host cocktail hour at 7 p.m.

Ex-Poverty Fighter Asks Open Hearing

Fired community worker William D. Robinson asked the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council last night for an open hearing on his dismissal.

Robinson, 35, of Novato, was dismissed last month by Victor H. Cary, EOC executive director, who said Robinson had been consistently late for work and failed to keep appointments.

Robinson has charged he was fired because he released details of a San Rafael woman's hardship to the press.

ASKS DELAY

The ex-anti poverty worker appeared at the council meeting last night with several supporters — including Mrs. Evelyn Allen, the woman whom he had helped—and seemed ready to proceed. But, midway through the meeting, he gave chairman Arthur L. Brown a letter saying he wished a postponement until a later date.

The council had no quorum at the time and Robinson said the persons who had accompanied him had to leave.

Attorney Gil Medeiros, chairman of the EOC personnel committee, said Robinson has requested an open hearing.

QUORUM LATE

The council, now at 18 members because of recent resignations, did not have a quorum until Asst. County Administration Thomas F. Campanella appeared following Robinson's departure. The council had been unable to gather a voting majority in four of five previous meetings.

Also last night, Cary announced that the regional Office of Economic Opportunity in San Francisco had permitted transfer of $1,000 from EOC funds into a limited legal services program for the poor that will be run by the Marin County Legal Aid Society.

The legal aid society will have to raise most of the money to put a lawyer on hardship cases, Cary said. The society, with EOC help, submitted a legal aid program totaling $175,518 to OEO last year, but the legal services fund had run dry.

COLLEGE STUDIES

The council endorsed introduction of courses at the College of Marin on black history, art and literature over the objection of Mrs. Edwin F. Gardner of Woodacre, who said, "This is a little out of line of the EOC."

"I don't think so," said Thomas W. Place, a council member and mathematics teacher at the college. "There is lots of intellectual poverty in this county."

Toll Booths To Be Added

A committee of Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors today voted to modernize and widen the toll booth plaza to 18 lanes.

The present 14-lane plaza is "obsolete, deteriorating and a serious bottleneck," Gen. Mgr. James Adam told the Building and Operating Committee.

The committee agreed that the engineering work should be done by Ammann and Whitney, the New York firm which did the $265,000 second deck study.

The firm's preliminary design of the plaza, included in its second deck study, showed the plaza "can be easily expanded in the future" to accommodate a second deck, Adam said.

Dixie Trustees Decide Oak View Boundaries

Attendance boundaries for the new Oak View School in the Dixie School District were set by the board of trustees, who met with about 100 parents at Bernard Hoffman School last night.

Trustees decided that all pupils living in San Rafael Park and south of the intersection of Montevideo and Las Galinas avenues would attend Bernard Hoffman School. Those on park ridge would attend Oak View School, but this would be the "balancing" area from which pupils would move should Oak View School become overcrowded.

All seventh and eighth graders living north of Sky View Terrace and Maple Hill Road would go to Miller Creek School. Pupils living between and including Maple Hill Road and Skyview Terrace and Montevideo Avenue would attend Vallecito School.

The State Allocations Board has approved $142,226 for the addition of four classrooms to the new Oak View School to be opened on Skyview Terrace in San Rafael Park in September.

This would be in addition to the four-classroom school for kindergarten to sixth grade, now under construction.

The Dixie District is entitled to the square footage for the four classroom addition because of the educationally handicapped program being conducted in the district, said Supt. Dennie B. Willis.

Dixie School District Board Also:

BUDGET MANAGEMENT — Decided that the principals and staffs of the various schools in the district would be given more responsibilities in budget management in their respective schools.

TENURE — Fifteen teachers were granted tenure. They are Mrs. Joan Brown and Mrs. Patricia Cutler from Miller Creek School; Mrs. Francis Char, Mrs. Bernice Toccagino, Mrs. Davia Moore and Clark Mattiessen from Bernard Hoffman School; Mrs. Billie Woodward and Bob Ginn from Santa Margarita School; Mrs. Marilyn Ginn and Mrs. Benita Indelicato from Vallecito School; Miss Jean Merriken of Dixie School; Harvey Murdock of Lucas Valley School; Mrs. Jane Reamer of Nova Albion School; Mrs. Elizabeth Said of Don Timoteo School, and Mrs. Beverly Samuel of Mary Silveira School.

HIRED — Authorized the superintendent to hire Mrs. Neba Jordon at $6,700 per year; Mrs. Marjorie Murray at $5,900 per year; Jack Young at $6,300, and Miss Joan Barovetto at $7,600.

Greenbrae Sets Candidate Night

A candidates' night for talks by the two candidates for the county's Second Supervisorial District post was scheduled last night by the Greenbrae Property Owners Association for 8 p.m. May 20 in the Greenbrae School's multi-purpose room.

The association also discussed possible increased safety measures for pedestrian crossings at the intersection of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and La Cuesta Drive.

Fire Stations Set Displays Saturday

Fire departments throughout Marin County will observe National Fire Service Day Saturday with special events.

A hose laying and pumping contest between two teams of Marin county firemen and the Citrus Heighis, Sacramento County, fire pumper team will be a highlight of the day.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, the Citrus Heights team will take on the San Anselmo Fire Department at the Red Hill Shopping Center in San Anselmo. A team representing the Marin County Association of Fire Departments will meet the visitors at 1 p.m. at the Northgate Mall in San Rafael.

CONTEST, RIDES

The association team is coached by Robert Mariani of the Kentfield Fire Department and captained by Ralph Craven of the Marinwood department.

Object of the contest is to pump water from a 1,000 gallon sump in the quickest possible time. The record, set at the state championships in Salinas on April 27, is one minute and five seconds. The Citrus Heights teams placed second and third at the championships.

The San Rafael Fire Department will provide free fire engine rides for children around the Northgate Mall and firemen will operate a 100-foot ladder truck and demonstrate fire fighting equipment. Fire equipment will be on display.

OTHER EVENTS

Mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and rescue breathing will be demonstrated, using Resusci-Annie, an inflatable doll with lungs which react like a human's.

Open houses will be the order for most departments.

The Corte Madera Fire Department will host a special program from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Corte Madera public safety building, Pixley Avenue and Tamalpais Drive.

The department will give free rides on the engines to children and take pictures of the youngsters on the trucks.

The Marin County Fire Department will have open houses at all stations from 1 to 5 p.m. At the main station in Woodacre the dispatch office will be open for tours and the grass and brush fire fighting equipment will be demonstrated. A film will also be shown. At the Point Reyes substation, there will be a rescue squad demonstration and equipment will be on display.

TERRA LINDA RIDES

The Terra Linda Fire Department will offer free rides on the fire truck from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Marinwood, Fairfax, Ross, San Rafael, Alto-Richardson Bay and Mill Valley fire departments will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Tamalpais Valley and Sausalito departments will have open house from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Novato's three stations and Larkspur will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and San Anselmo from 1 to 5 p.m.

Transport Committee Backs Span Study Bill

A bill to allow the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District to study and operate all forms of transportation was endorsed unanimously yesterday by the Tri-partite Transportation Committee.

The bill (SB 1012), by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, would allow the district to get into water transportation and even a tube under the bay between San Francisco and Marin. The district's attorney has advised that present law office does not allow the district tto do either.

SIMILAR BILL

The bill is similar to one previously introduced by Assemblyman John F. Foran, D-San Francisco. Foran's bill (AB 175) also would add three directors tto the bridge board, one from San Francisco and two from Marin. It is given little chance of passage.

Collier's district includes several counties in the bridge district. Representatives of those counties on the bridge board are opposed to adding more directors from San Francisco and Marin.

The committee, composed of Marin and San Francisco supervisors and bridge district directors, and meeting in the bridge district administration building, then turned its attention to one form of water transportation.

HOVERCRAFT URGED

A fleet of $5 million, 600-passenger, hovercraft may be a good way to solve the problem of traffic congestion between Marin and San Francisco, but the system would lose money on its commute operations, an executive for the company that builds them told the committee.

"It's a well known fact that you'll never break even with commuters," said Colin Faulkner, assistant product manager for the hovercraft made by Bell Aerosystems Co. in Buffalo, N. Y.

Faulkner suggested that the deficit from commuter operations could be covered by using the vehicles to move passengers between San Francisco and Oakland airports and communities around the bay. "A steady business, rather than tourism or trips around the bay would be needed," he said.

PEAK HOURS

Seymour Kashin, general manager of the Marin Transit District, noted that peak commute hours may coincide with peak traffic hours at the airports.

Marin Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen suggested that 600-passenger hovercraft would be too large for use by airport passengers or by tourists riding around the bay.

Smaller vehicles would not help the commute problem, Faulkner said.

CARRY BUSES?

He also proposed the possibility that the large vehicles could carry mini-buses, so that passengers would not have to make transfers on either side of the bay. The Marin Transit District board, coincidentally, has asked Kashin to study the feasibility of mini-buses to provide feeder service to Greyhound buses.

Kashin noted that hovercraft would be included in a study of water transit to be done by the proposed "transit task force" that is awaiting approval by San Francisco supervisors.

More than 100 hovercraft, which move on a cushion of air, are in commercial service around the world, Faulkner noted, "so we consider this a going business."

Hovercraft require no dredging and only about 200 feet of bay frontage for a terminal, he said.

HYDROFOIL STUDY

The committee, in March, heard promoters of 120-passenger hydrofoils propose operation of their vessels, which cost $1.4 million each. A hydrofoil lifts its hull from the water and rides on "wings" projecting from the hull below the surface of the water.

The committee set its next meeting for June 12, and agreed to consider one-way tolls on the Golden Gate Bridge and better bus service in downtown San Francisco for Marin commuters.

Pleads Guilty To Contributing

Robert Collins, 42, of 116A Hawthorne Avenue, Larkspur, pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a charge that he contributed to the delinquency of a 13-year-old Tiburon girl, placing her in danger of living a lewd, idle, dissolute and immoral life.

Pleads Innocent To Check Charge

George Iakovkin pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a charge that he possessed a bad check in Sausalito Nov. 12 with intent to use it to defraud someone.

Sausalito police said he tried to pass a stolen $129.51 check at the Joel Jewelry Store that day. The check was stolen from a San Francisco construction company, they said.

Iakovkin was ordered to return to court Wednesday for a preliminary hearing on the charge.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

People Live In Distinct Shifts: Matutinophiles, Matutinophobes

VAN DELLEN

. Are you a matutinophile or a matutinophobe? The matutinophile awakens quickly in the morning and finishes most of his work before noon. The matutinophobe does the opposite. He has trouble awakening early and cannot navigate until he has had a cup of coffee. This person remains disoriented until about noon, but from this point on, he works fast.

Most people fall into one of these broad categories. In all probability man's timing system is the result of an acquired faculty established through necessity or example. It may be related to the individual's personality or associated with his built-in time clock which he inherited. At any rate, companies with three work crews might turn this situation to practical account.

"Philes" could take the first shift, and "phobes," the second. Those with insomnia or night owl tendencies might fit in perfectly if they were put on the night shift.

Many people are terrified by the word automation. They visualize tyrannical machines relegating man to a button pusher or a dial watcher. In addition, it hurts one's pride to know that a machine can duplicate the skills of a man and, in many instances, do the job faster and better. Automation could improve or impair well-being, depending upon the worker. It should do no harm to the physical health of the working man. If anything, there will be fewer accidents, toxic hazards, and an improved environment in the plant.

THE ELIMINATION of manhandling will reduce physical activity. But since exercise is beneficial to the heart, lack of activity may hasten coronary disease. Long periods with nothing to do may encourage smoking and drinking. Most automated equipment runs day and night. This means adjusting to shift work, which is not difficult, but again, depends on the individual.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

INVOLUTIONAL PSYCHOSIS

I. P. writes: How can a man tell if his wife is going thru involutional psychosis? She is 48 years old and I seem to be the object of her hostility, suspicion, and delusions.

REPLY

You ought to know whether your wife's reactions are founded on fact. If they are imaginary, a psychiatrist should be consulted. The diagnosis you have made is a humdinger. I assume you refer to a mental disorder brought on by the change of life.

REACTS TO PENICILLIN

A reader writes: When my 20-year-old son had a shot of penicillin, his tongue got numb and then he blacked out. Why?

REPLY

If this occurred immediately after the injection, I suspect he fainted. This is caused by fear of the needle and not the contents of the syringe. Reactions to penicillin are different. The majority are of an allergic nature and involve breathing or affect the skin.

CARROTS AND GRAY HAIR

R. L. writes: A friend of mine claims he got rid of all his gray hair by eating carrots and drinking carrot juice. I find this hard to believe. Would you please comment as to whether this is possible?

REPLY

Your friend may be the lucky "one in a million." Are you sure that he is not using a dye?

Novato Chamber Tries To Smooth Friction Over Manager's Firing

The Novato Chamber of Commerce last night heard why Donald Loegering, the manager, was fired; then, trying to smooth over internal dissension, asked the Novato City Council to ignore a petition of some angry members that the city's cash contribution to the chamber be withheld.

The general membership meeting was called by unhappy members who felt that the executive committee, which recommended Loegering be fired, and the board of directors, which fired him, had done it without asking them. About 100 persons attended.

NEW BYLAWS

Of the 19-member board of directors, the 13 present last night agreed to consider recommendations of the general membership for more democracy when a new set of bylaws, under study, is adopted. One recommendation to be considered is a smaller board of directors.

Loegering, a former Air Force officer, was fired on April 3 after holding the manager's job only six months. Chamber President Jack Kinney told the general membership that personal financial difficulties and a refusal to take orders were the reasons Loegering was fired.

Kinney said, "We were already cutting corners and Don asked for another phone line. The executive committee voted no on it. He (Loegering) says 'I won't take that for an answer. I'll go over your head to the full board of directors'.

SPLIT OVER CAR

"I didn't like that kind of an attitude. Then the board wanted to buy a small economy station wagon, that would be cheap to operate, and we could use it to carry things for the annual Western Weekend celebration. He said he wouldn't drive anything but an eight cylinder car.

"I went back to the executive committee and they said to try to get along with him. We wound up with a Fairlane 500, just what we didn't want."

Finally, said Kinney, Loegering told him "if you don't think I follow directions, why don't you call a board meeting and can me?" The board of directors, acting on advice of the executive committee, did fire Loegering, by an 8-3 vote.

LOEGERING'S SIDE

Loegering last night said that having been an Air Force officer most of his life, he hadn't much experience in chamber of commerce work. He held up a thin, blue volume.

"I used the Bible for Chamber of Commerce managers, 'Chamber of Commerce Management.' it was first published in 1927. It has been refined and is the definitive work on the subject," he said.

Reading excerpts from "Chamber of Commerce Management," Loegering pointed out "it advises that the Chamber of Commerce manager is not supposed to be a clerk. I tried to follow it, to use vision and leadership.

"I was active in the presentation of the Christmas pageant, in the erection and display of the Nativity scene, in the promotion of the Western Weekend dance. What rewards could I expect? Only to help the Novato Chamber of Commerce grow into a more effective force for progress."

Loegering left after reading his statement, and the general membership, warned by one member that "this could tear the chamber apart," turned to deal with a petition that former Chamber President Alfred W. Bowman got six of the members to sign. It asked the city council to withhold the present quarterly $2,000 of the $8,000 contributed to the chamber yearly by the city.

The general membership, by a unanimous voice vote, approved a resolution informing the city council that Bowman's petition did not represent the general feeling. The resolution asked the city to go ahead and make the $2,000 payment to the chamber.

Bowman did not vote against the resolution, but he complained to the directors that he and other members got short shrift when they tried to attend the meeting at which Loegering was fired. "I do not think we were treated as dues paying members," he said. "We were treated as peons. We and Don Loegering had to sit outside."

Robert Edwards of the Novato Merchants Association said he was "shocked" when he heard Loegering had been fired. "It was the first time you'd had a vital person in charge," said Edwards. "He was full of enthusiasm for his job.

Chamber Director George Barnwell made a motion embodying some of the complaints voiced by the membership and asked that the bylaws committee consider them as it puts together a new set of rules. These should include, said Barnwell, insurance of rotation of leadership, definition of the executive committee's powers, reduction of the board of directors to a smaller group, four general membership meetings a year, and a provision subjecting the board of directors to a vote of confidence by the general membership.

The board of directors unanimously approved Barnwell's motion.

Defraud Charges Plea Date Set

Frank M. Rosania, 20, of San Francisco, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a charge that he possessed a money order with intent to defraud.

San Anselmo Police said Rosana tried to cash a $20 money order at the Knot Inn, 300 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Sunday night. The money order was payable to Lloyd Reynolds, officers said, and police were called when Rosania failed to produce identification for that name.

Defendant Denies Charges On Battery

Danny W. Goss, 22, of Bolinas, pleaded innocent to misdemeanor battery charge in Marin Municipal Court yesterday and was scheduled for a jury trial Aug. 12.

A 14-year-old Bolinas girl said he threatened to rape her April 27.

Britain To Replace Jordan's Lost Jets

LONDON (AP) — Qualified informants say Britain will replace most of the 20 Hawker Hunter jet fighters that Jordan lost in the six-day war with Israel last June.

This was reported after King Hussein lunched yesterday with Prime Minister Harold Wilson, Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart and Aviation Minister John Stonehouse.

Britain's biggest library, with more than 6.5 million volumes, belongs to the British Museum.

No Truce Yet On Potato Chips

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Both sides in the Northern California potato chip strike met last night, but recessed with no progress reported.

About 300 driver-salesmen of the Teamsters Union closed the Granny Goose, Laura Scudder, Frito-Lay and Bell Brands plants April 22.

Neither side has moved much from the positions they held before the strike, it was reported.

Old Tank Explodes In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Sparks from a worker's acetylene torch set off a blast in an underground fuel tank yesterday, throwing giant chunks of concrete as high as four stories in the air.

Only one person suffered minor injuries from a flying brick and little damage was done, except to the empty fuel tank which was buried under the sidewalk at an excavation site in the city's downtown Tenderloin district.

Topless Dancer In Stanford Runoff; Student Flare Ends

STANFORD (UPI) — The three-day sit-in at Stanford University is over and a topless dancer with measurements of 38-22-36 may head the tense student-administration negotiations which lie ahead.

The more than 400 students involved in the sit-in at the old Student Union, a campus administration building, voted to leave yesterday night after the faculty supported their cause.

The teachers passed a resolution asking president Wallace Sterling to set aside the suspension of seven students who demonstrated against the Central Intelligence Agency last fall.

In the meantime, topless dancer Vicki Drake came out first in the Stanford student government election. She collected 1,575 votes, but must face Dennis Hayes, now student vice president, in a runoff next week. Hayes got 1,232 votes.

Miss Drake is not currently enrolled. She was a Spanish major and will re-enter school next fall if elected.

Architect Panel Elects Chairman

August Rath was named chairman and Mrs. E. Charles Bassett vice chairman of the Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee Tuesday.

Edmond Kagi was named a one-man subcommittee to check landscaping at the new Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church against the landscaping plan for final approval.

Three plan review applications on the agenda were held over to the May 21 meeting. Joseph Eastburn was asked to submit a new design May 21 for a building planned at 36 Miller Avenue. A proposed building at 383 Miller Avenue for Small World Car Leasing was ordered resubmitted May 21 with plans included for a 15-foot wide pedestrian strip.

Barbecue Policy

Residents in the Bolinas Fire Protection District may barbecue at any hour, Fire Chief Jose A. Silva said yesterday, but barbecue units must be inspected and given a permit by firemen.

Violence On Campuses In Illinois

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The center of campus disturbances shifted violently to Illinois yesterday as campus police clashed with students at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and Chicago police arrested 22 demonstrators at Roosevelt University.

Two students were injured and two others arrested after some of a group of 500 students tried to storm the offices of SIU president Delyte Morris last night but were repulsed by a handful of campus police.

The attempted storming at SIU came after a meeting of the student coalition, a newly formed group representing various organizations. At the meeting a spokesman for the Afro-American Union suggested that they take over the president's office to win demands of student control of the campus newspaper and radio station and a bigger student voice in the affairs of the 18,000 student university.

At Roosevelt University in Chicago, police last night arrested 22 students who attempted to stage an all night sit-in in front of the president's office. There were no reports of violence and 50 other students who agreed to move to another floor of the building were allowed to remain overnight. They were supervised by 16 teachers.

A threatened hunger strike by the 24 Negro students at Wellesley College, an exclusive girl's school near Boston, was averted yesterday when school officials agreed to admit more Negro freshmen next term. The college, which has a total enrollment of 1,775 agreed to admit 20 Negro freshmen in the fall.

The 200 students at predominantly Negro Cheyney State College in West Chester, Pa., agreed last night to end their sit-in at the administration building after they were granted amnesty by school officials.

AT Monmouth College in Monmouth, Ill., where 25 of the 1,300 students are Negro, a black power conference was under-way with administration approval.

In New York City, a student strike continued as 11 Columbia students and faculty members and Negro and white community leaders filed a federal suit both to prevent city police from entering the campus and to seek amnesty for the more than 700 persons arrested during a campus raid April 30. Those arrested held control of five university buildings for a week.

Santa Fe Chief To End Its Run

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission gave the Santa Fe Railway permission today to discontinue its famed Chicago-Los Angeles streamliner the Chief.

The commission ordered the Santa Fe to continue operating for one year another Chicago-Los Angeles passenger train, the Grand Canyon.

The Chief is a coach-sleeper train. It long has been considered one of Santa Fe's luxury transcontinental trains. The railroad had cited declining patronage and loss of mail from several trains as reasons for proposing the end of the trains.

The Chief may be discontinued Monday, the commission's three-commissioner division said in making the order.

Canadian Killed, Six Missing In Paratroop Error

OTTAWA (UPI)—A Canadian paratroop training mission ended in tragedy yesterday when the 26-man force missed the drop zone and landed in Lake Allumette. One body was recovered and a search was underway today for six men missing and feared dead.

A spokesman for Canadian armed Forces Headquarters said the parachutists missed the target area by 1,000 yards and all but four landed in the lake, a part of the Ottawa River located about 100 miles northwest of here.

The dead soldier was identified as Warrant Ofifcer M. T. MacDonell, 41, of Rathburn, Ont.

The Headquarters spokesman said the accident occurred as dusk was falling. He said the parachutists "drifted further than expected" and the men landed in the 40-degree lake water.

Jim Hunter Makes History With Perfect Game

By JIM CHURCH

OAKLAND (AP) — One pitch meant more to him than he ever dreamed it could, says Jim "Catfish" Hunter.

With a high fastball last night, the 22-year-old Hertford, N.C., native struck out Rich Reese, a .154 hitter.

It also made him the first American League pitcher in 46 years to hurl a regular season perfect game.

He didn't allow a runner to reach first and struck out 11 as the Oakland A's downed Minnesota 4-0.

Charlie Robertson pitched a perfect game April 30, 1922, as the Chicago White Sox beat Detroit 2-0. Don Larsen of the New York Yankees beat Brooklyn 2-0 with a perfect game in the 1956 World Series.

It was the ninth perfect nine-inning regular season in baseball since 1880. Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings in 1959 but allowed a hit in the 13th as Pittsburgh lost to Milwaukee.

"I would have rather walked him than give up a no-hitter," said a jubilant Hunter.

"I wasn't real nervous," said the 6-foot, 192-pound right-hander.

"But I was thinking a little about the no-hitter when I went to bat in the eighth."

Hunter, who went 3-for-4, singled in two runs after Ron Perranoski had forced in a run by walking Danny Cater.

"He probably threw no more than five curves all night," said catcher Jim Pagliaroni, who caught Bill Monbouquette when he hurled a no-hitter for Boston over Chicago in 1962.

"He only shook off two of my signs," added Pagliaroni. "He made my job easy."

He was 13-17 for the A's last year and allowed a run and four hits in the All-Star Game.

In his fourth season in the majors, Hunter is now 3-2 and has a 2.50 earned run average.

Hunter, who skipped the minor leagues, was on the disabled list in 1964 due to an operation on a foot to remove shotgun pellets which lodged there during a hunting accident. A hunting accident in 1963 cost him the big toe on his right foot.

"What can I say?" said A's Manager Bob Kennedy. "It was a great job, a one-man show."

"I have just two words—a masterpiece," was the way ex-Yankee great Joe DiMaggio, an A's coach, described the game.

Was the perfect game mentioned in the dugout?

"Mike Hershberger kept saying that he thought somebody got on base," said Hunter.

"The players joked to Kennedy about putting in a pinch hitter for me in the eighth."

As Hunter was mobbed in the clubhouse, outfielder Rick Monday joked, "A guy goes 3-for-4 and look how they treat him."

Earlier, when Pagliaroni was talking to newsmen, Monday yelled, "Don't believe a word he says, I called every pitch from center field."

"I was hoping the ball wouldn't be hit to me," said left fielder Joe Rudi, playing his first game of the season after being called up from Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League. "I'm sure I was more nervous than Catfish." Rudi left for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

"We were going to do anything to preserve the no-hitter," said third baseman Sal Bando, "dive in front of the ball and try to get an error if we couldn't get an out on the play."

In another close call, Rudi

Finley And His $5,000 Call

Hunter To Get Bounty

By HERB MICHELSON
I-J Correspondent

OAKLAND — James Augustus Hunter leaned back on his folding chair until it was flush with a refrigerator blotched with silver and black decals labeled Oakland Raiders.

He was hatless; his hair was matted with perspiration that somehow managed to flow on a fairly cool evening. In his left ear was dangling one of those little plastic plugs that one normally sees extending from the head of Chet Huntley or Walter Cronkhite on election night.

'ANY MINUTE NOW'

The engineer seated on the other side of the refrigerator kept telling Hunter, "It'll be any minute now." While everyone waited in the small room — the "everyone" including an interloping TV man and pushy Independent-Journal scribe — Hunter's manager, Bob Kennedy, stuck his head in the door.

COMPLETE IMPORTANCE

"You have a phone call," he told Hunter. "Can't you take it now? Can't they just tape this?"

Kennedy was told they couldn't tape it. "Okay," he said. "But you'd better hurry. It's long-distance and I think it's important."

Indeed, an air of complete importance now surrounded Jim Hunter. He had just pitched rather well for the Oakland Athletics against the Minnesota Twins. Perfectly well.

He kept brushing back his hair. His Kelly green baseball cap was missing. It had popped off a few feet in front of the pitching mound shortly after a lefthanded Minnesota batter named Rick Reese struck out. Nobody pushed off the cap. When you're surrounded by two dozen teammates, something's bound to be misplaced.

'RUINED EVERYTHING'

"You sure ruined everything," Kennedy said on his way out. "It was all nice and quiet around here. And you had to go and pitch a perfect game."

Hunter returned his manager's mock glare with a smile. Then it was radio time. One could hear Hunter's answers only.

"Yep . . . best thrill I ever had . . . My fastball felt real good . . . But I had trouble with my breaking ball. Sometimes it would work and sometimes it wouldn't . . . My catcher? . . . Well, I just kept throwing the ball where both of us wanted it."

The 22-year-old righthander unplugged and started for the important phone call. Yes, he said, Harmon Killebrew was the Twin batter he feared most. Yes, he was simply trying to prevent "The Killer" from hitting a homer. "Against him, I tried to bear down and hope he'd either miss or pop up."

THINK NO-HITTER

Killebrew struck out three times.

Sure, said Hunter, he was worried all the time about losing this flirtation with perfection. "But I was thinking no-hitter all the time, of course. I would have walked one of them before I would have risked losing a no-hitter."

He said he'd pitched five no-hitters at Perquimans County High School in Hertford, N.C. One of the five had been a "perfect."

Sadecki Fattens Both His Pitching, Batting Records

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — San Francisco Giants pitcher Ray Sadecki fattened both his pitching and hitting averages at the expense of the Houston Astros.

Sadecki won his fourth game against two losses last night as the Giants whipped the Astros 3-1. He allowed only four hits before he got bullpen help in the ninth.

The Giants' starter also was handy with the bat, whacking two doubles and scoring the go-ahead run in the top of the ninth inning.

FIRST HIT

Sadecki held the Astros hitless until the seventh and yielded only two more hits in the ninth before he was relieved, but the first hit Sadecki allowed put the Astros ahead. It was Jim Wynn's third home run of the season.

The Giants tied the score in the eighth off Houston starter and loser Larry Dierker, 2-5. Jesus Alou singled, and Willie Mays walked and scored on Ollie Browns' single.

Sadecki doubled to right center in the ninth, took third on Ron Hunt's bunt single and scored on Mays' single. Mike Cuellar replaced Dierker and the Giants scored their third run on a sacrifice fly to short right by Willie McCovey.

THREAT

The Astros mounted a big threat in the bottom of the ninth but Sadecki was the man of the hour for the Giants.

Astros pinch-hitter Doug Rader singled to lead off the ninth and Ron Davis followed with a double, putting the tying runs on second and third with no outs. Ivan Murrell struck out and Giants Manager Herman Franks, playing the percentages, waved in right-hander Frank Linzy to pitch to Wynn.

CHANGE

Linzy struck out Wynn and Franks changed pitchers again, bringing in Joe Gibbon to face Rusty Staub. Staub hit a bouncer back to the mound to end the game and give the Giants their first victory in three attempts against the Astros.

San Francisco shortstop Hal Lanier and manager Herman Franks got in a verbal battle after Franks pulled Lanier out for a pinch hitter in the eighth inning. Franks said the episode would cost Lanier a suspension, fine, or both.

Tam Sends 11 Athletes Into Prep Track Finals

Tamalpais High jumped back into the Marin County Athletic League Track and Field Meet picture by elevating 11 thinclads into the finals after completion of the running event qualifications yesterday at Tamalpais.

Unfortunately for the Indians, Redwood also sent 11 assorted runners into the finals, complemented by nine field event qualifiers.

In the Class B field event qualifications, San Rafael sent nine more qualifiers into the finals, tops for the Bees while frosh field event qualifiers where led by Terra Linda's eight.

Warriors Go For Size In NBA Player Draft

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Warriors want more size. At least that seemed to be the goal in their 1968 draft picks.

They grabbed 6-6 guard Ron Williams in last month's telephone first-round draft. And they signed the West Virginia star to a long contract yesterday.

That meant they could go for front court help in the rest of the draft, which was held yesterday. They chose 6-8 Don Sidel of Oklahoma, 6-7 Edgar Lacey of UCLA, who was swapped to Los Angeles for a high pick next year, 6-11 Jim Eakins of Brigham Young, 6-9 Bob Allen of Marshall, 6-6 Dave Reasor of West Virginia, and 6-8 Walt Piatkowski of Bowling Green.

Their final picks included 6-6 Bob Heaney of Santa Clara, 6-4 Jerry Chandler of Nevada Southern and 6-6 Bob Wolfe of California.

Because of their high finish, the Warriors had no second-round pick. Sidle was actually the 29th man selected, but coach George Lee said he felt Sidle was an excellent prospect anyway. "We feel fortunate he was still around," Lee commented.

A Day In The Life Of A P. E. Teacher

THE PRINCIPAL'S PRINCIPLES:

"Miss Jones! Get me Miss Blubgett. Tell her to report to my office immediatly, if not sooner!"

"Certainly, Mr. Creeps. Just one moment, please."

Knock-knock.

"Enter."

"You asked for me, Mr. Creeps?"

"Yes indeed, Miss Blubgett. Touch your toes 10 times, do 20 pushups and 50 situps!"

"I beg your pardon, Mr. Creeps?"

"You heard me. Now do it."

"Why, Mr. Creeps! Have you lost your mind?"

"Certainly not, Miss Blubgett. Now do as I say!"

"Hold on, Mr. Creeps. I believe I deserve an explanation. Just why do you want me to exercise so profusely?"

Now About That Figure

"MISTER CREEPS, how dare you . . ."

"My alledgedly excessive avoirduWHAT?"

"Well, some people are talking that because of your . . . er . . . uh . . . imposing stature you cannot properly demonstrate physical education to the girls in your gym classes. I mean you can't really show them how to use the trampoline and things like that. I'm forced to dismiss you."

"Well, Mister Creeps, on that basis, let me ask you a few questions.

"Can Alex Hannum outshoot Rick Barry?

"Miss Blubgett, you are dismissed."

"And, Mr. Creeps, do you know what I'll do if the Board of Education upholds my dismissal?"

"No, Miss Blubgett, what will you do?"

"I'll suet. And besides that, Mr. Creeps, I'll tell the board that it's really not the school, it's the principal of the thing."

Big Innings Spark Two Softball Wins

Pat Dell'Era sparked a nine-running second inning with a three run homer to lead Suburbia Auto Electric to a 15-2 win over the Theologians in the San Rafael Recreation Department's C League softball action yesterday.

In a B League game, Brandon Tire used a big six-run sixth inning, sparked by Ken Moony's solo homer, to down Holling's Mohawk, 9-1.

PREP NOTES

Dillon Doing Job For Novato Nine

By GARY TISCHLER

Russ Dillon is A-OK, and so are the Novato Hornets, baseball style.

Coach Bob Aune's Hornets, who won't lose a thing if they beat Drake Firday, can also keep an ear cocked for the Terra Linda-Redwood tussle, in which the Hornets stand to gain no matter who loses.

The odds are that Russ Dillon, the Babe Ruth hero of Novato, will probably get another look at the Trojans. He shut them out the first time around, knocking Terra Linda out of the unbeaten ranks.

DILLON HAD been having injury problems and had lost a decision to Redwood but of late the junior phenom has caught fire, picking up all of Novato's last four wins, three of them as a starter and another as reliever.

In the three starting assignments, Dillon hasn't allowed a run of any color, earned, unearned or hamstrung. He tossed a five-hitter at Terra Linda, a two-hitter at Marin Catholic and a one-hitter at San Rafael, which could mean that a no-hitter is due next in the order. In his relief assignment against Redwood, Dillon got touched for five hits and some runs but won it anyway.

Ray Leach will be headed that way next season to join another Marin prep golf great, Don Hawken of San Rafael.

PAT SCHAFER, Tam's super-center in basketball, hasn't made up his mind as to college plans. Strictly on a basketball level, Pat would probably have to play some kind of forward. Six-three centers are not exactly in great demand, no matter how good they are.

Schafer would be a nice addition to College of Marin next year, when the Tars play in tougher quarters. It's shaping up already, with such players as Chip Tyson, Andre Horn and a host of junior varsity players. Ches Bornia and Tom Seidenberg may drop in, too.

RANDY HARNESS, who could have had more or less a clear field for a first place finish in the mile in this weekend's Marin County Athletic League track and field meet, probably won't even be in the running.

The Tamalpais standout miler was doing some running on his own in the hills of North San Jose when a carload of youths tracked him down, finally catching up with him in their car and giving him a thorough going over, kicking-gang style.

Residents of the area said that this sort of thing goes on all the time in the area.

Harness suffered a mild concussion, and, although he is in the listings on a special ruling, will probably not do as well as he undoubtedly could have.

Track, Baseball Top Weekend Prep Slate

The 1968 MCAL track and field meet will be held for the second straight year at Tamalpais High School Saturday at noon.

The team titles involved are only salves for the pride while individuals battle for times, distances and spots in the upcoming Division III North Coast Section Meet at Santa Rosa the following weekend.

Although team titles are awarded in varsity, Class B and frosh competition, the real ones have already been decided in regular season dual meet competition.

Still, there's things to watch for, although some of the varsity competitors will be dropping like flies — to Class B fields, with an eye towards further competition.

The big stars of the meet, running-wise, will undoubtedly be dash-man Allan Lee of Tamalpais, who any day now, could break a bunch of records, and Terra Linda hurdler Lowell Harris, who may do severe damage to a pair of marks, maybe even three if he does well in the long jump.

In baseball, Terra Linda and Redwood, chasing down a blind alley after front-running Novato, claw at each other and no matter who wins, it will hurt severely, especially in the case of Coach Al Endriss' Giants, who have already lost a pair.

In other games, Novato is at Drake and San Rafael hosts Tamalpais at Albert Field, both games at 4 p.m.

HUNTER

That phone call in Kennedy's office was from A's owner Charles O. Finley. He'd heard the game all the way back in LaPorte, Ind. at the Finley manse, via transistor radio. It was a Twins' broadcast via Des Moines, Iowa.

And all Finley wanted to tell Hunter was that he had a $5,000 bonus waiting. Bonuses are frowned upon by the Commissioner. But somehow, Finley will find a way to get the money to the kid.

Perfect Night For Oakland's Jim Hunter

Pagliaroni protested one called ball on Reese on the crucial strikeout, but later admitted plate umpire Jerry Neudecker was right. "He called a good, fair game," said Pagliaroni.

"I wasn't excited," said Neudecker. "I have a job to do and I have to bear down just as much as the pitcher."

The victory pushed the rallying A's into third place ahead of Minnesota, but one of the A's smallest crowds of the season, 6,298, watched the masterpiece.

The A's held a 1-0 lead going into the eighth after Monday doubled in the seventh, went to third on losing pitcher Dave Boswell's wild pitch and scored on Hunter's single.

In other American League games yesterday, Detroit dropped Baltimore 3-1, Boston took Washington 3-1, California nipped Chicago 3-2 and New York edged Cleveland 2-1.

Jim Northrup hammered his fifth home run of the year and made a clutch catch shutting off a Baltimore rally in the eighth inning as the Tigers beat the Orioles.

Northrup's diving catch of Brooks Robinson's liner ended a bases-loaded threat in the Orioles' eighth. Jon Warden pitched out of a tight ninth inning jam to nail down the victory for Earl Wilson.

Washington dropped its sixth straight when Boston pushed over a pair of eighth-inning runs on a pinch single by Jerry Adair and Carl Yastrzemski's sacrifice fly.

Don Mincher's sixth inning homer carried California past Chicago as Clyde Wright won his second game. Luis Aparicio had a two-run homer for the White Sox.

Andy Kosko doubled and Jake Gibbs singled him home with New York's winning run against Cleveland. The game was marked by a near free-for-all fight when Indians' first baseman Tony Horton and Yankee shortstop Gene Michael exchanged punches in the fifth inning.

Pirates Edge Braves In 14 Innings

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Luman Harris watched four right arms overpower the Atlanta Braves... and couldn't believe his eyes.

"Everybody looks like Lefty Grove against us," the Braves' skipper said last night after his club dropped a 4-3, 14-inning decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates. "We get three runs in the first inning and I don't see us get anybody else on base for the next three hours."

Right-handers Steve Blass, Dave Wickersham, Ron Kline and Elroy Face threw blanks at Atlanta after the Braves pushed over three unearned first inning runs. Roberto Clemente's sacrifice fly in the 14th finally won it for the Pirates, who have played six one-run ball games in their last seven starts.

Elsewhere, San Francisco trimmed Houston 3-1, St. Louis topped the New York Mets 2-0, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 6-2 and the Chicago Cubs edged Los Angeles 7-6.

Pinch hitter Gary Kolb opened the Pirates' 14th by drawing a walk from Atlanta reliever Cecil Upshaw. Maury Wills forced Kolb, Matty Alou beat out an infield hit and the pair pulled off a double steal before Wills scored the tie-breaking run on Clemente's fly to right.

The Pirates had tied it with two runs in the eighth, capitalizing on two wild pitches by Atlanta starter Phil Niekro and a throwing error by catcher Marty Martinez.

Kline limited the Braves to one hit from the ninth through the 13th and earned the victory, with Face pitching the final inning. Blass allowed three hits before going out for a pinch hitter in the sixth and Wickersham followed up with two scoreless innings.

"It was a real fine win, especially after the way we've been losing them in the late innings," said Pirates Manager Larry Shepard. "Ron Kline was tremendous. It's the best he's pitched this year."

The Cardinals blanked the Mets behind the four-hit pitching of Steve Carlton, who drove in the only run he needed with a third inning single.

Greg Goosen's single and Jerry Grote's double got Carlton in trouble in the seventh, but third baseman Mike Shannon speared Jerry Buchek's liner and stepped on the bag, completing an unassisted, inning-ending double play.

Bobby Wine drilled a three-run homer, capping a five-run ninth inning uprising that carried the Phillies past Cincinnati. The Reds' Pete Rose went hitless for the first time in 23 games.

Homers by Billy Williams and Ron Santo and a two-run double by Adolfo Phillips gave Cubs right-hander Joe Niekro his fifth victory in six decisions. Rocky Colavito hammered a pair of homers for the Dodgers.

Savvy Oakland Exec. Picks Tigers In A.L.

And although he left the league's offices to play Charlie Finley's moving van game, Bill Cutler still talks like a junior circuit flag waver. Bill who? Well, Cutler is the A's new executive vice president. He was the good right hand for many years to Will Harridge and then Joe Cronin in A.L. offices in Chicago and Boston. What he doesn't know about baseball "law" (i.e., the old rule book) is total triviality. In addition, ke knows what everybody's got on the field.

Bill sees another tight race in the American. In this regard, he's not alone. The cast of clubs in the suspenseful final days may change in '68, but Cutler's convinced there are bound to be several. Maybe even his own Oakland Athletics. (An exclamation mark at this point would be editorializing.)

Along with the oddsmakers, Cutler leans toward Detroit as the favorite for the flag. "They're at the age when they should win the pennant. They've got a lot of power — Al Kaline, Willie Horton, Norm Cash. If Kaline was healthy in '67, they would have won the pennant.

"And their front line pitching (McClain, Lolich, Wilson, Sparma) is just great. Their catcher (Bill Freehan) is the best around; their third baseman (Don Wert) is terribly underrated. Everybody ignores him with a guy like Brooks Robinson around."

The Tiger shortstop, Ray Oyler, doesn't hit. But, says Bill, "He doesn't have to."

Who will be battling with the Tigers in the showdown days? Cutler sees Baltimore, Minnesota and the Angels applying pressure. That cuts 1967 powers Boston and Chicago out of the pennant pie. Expecially the defending champion Red Sox.

"The loss of both Jim Lonborg and Tony Conigliaro is very discouraging," says Cutler. "Tony may have looked like a cocky guy to a lot of people, but he was just cocky enough to be a fine ballplayer.

"Can Carl Yastrzemski repeat his fine year? Well, that's a helluva lot to ask of a guy."

The White Sox' poor start may have wrecked their chances, says Bill. "They're not a comeback club. Runs were hard for them to come by." Cutler suggests the double handicap of an early season loss streak and lack of run-making is too formidable to overcome.

Baltimore may make things messy for everybody. Cutler figures the Orioles' chances thusly: "They're for real, even this early in the season. They didn't repeat as champions last year because Boog Powell and Davey Johnson fell off; plus, they had a few sore arms. And there was a letdown after they won the world championship. This happens to everybody — except maybe to the Yankees of the 1950s and earlier.

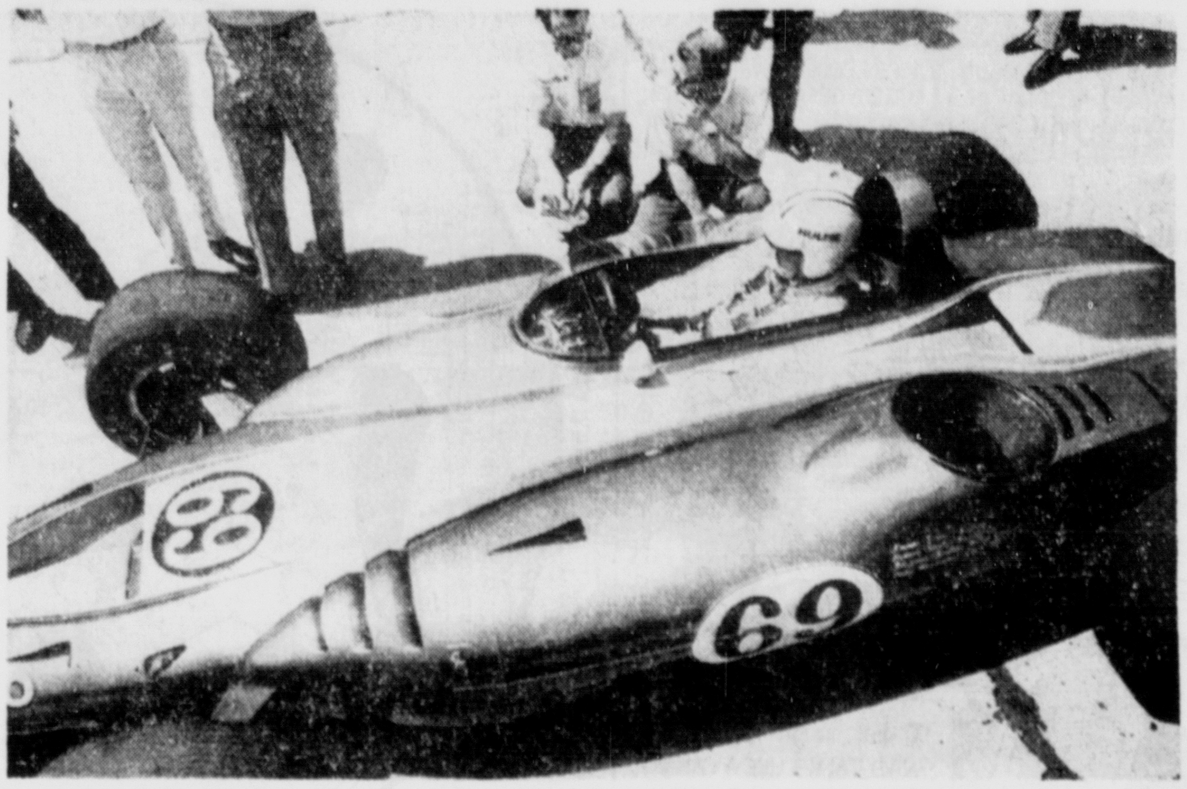
Therein lies the tale of the A.L. in '68: The draft factor. It can influence a pennant race more than any time since World War II. Only General Hershey seems not to care. Maybe he'd like to play short for Baltimore.



DENIS HULME AND SHELBY TURBINE

Denis Hulme of Australia pauses after an early test of his turbine-powered car at the Indianapolis Speedway. The car is one of three withdrawn by owner Carroll Shelby of Los Angeles. Shelby said he felt it is impossible at present to make a turbine-powered race car competitive "with a reasonable degree of safety and reliability. (UPI Telephoto)

Raiders Obtain Back From Bills

OAKLAND (AP) — Running back Charley Warner has been obtained on waivers from the Buffalo Bills, the Oakland Raiders announced today.

Warner, 6-0 and 176 pounds, was a top runback specialist in 1965 and 1966 but was injured most of last season.

The Raiders plan to use him on kickoffs and in the defensive secondary.

Nolan Called Up By Cincinnati; Tsitouris Axed

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds last night sent pitcher John Tsitouris outright to Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League and recalled Gary Nolan, a young pitcher who had ben on a farm club list because of an arm ailment.

Nolan had a 14-8 record with the Reds last year in his first season in the major leagues.

He developed the arm trouble in spring training and was left in Tampa in the minor leagues to work out the ailment. He recently returned here for examination and has been working out with the Reds.

Tsitouris, who had been up and down in the majors and minors, had an 0-3 record with the Reds this year with a 6.92 earned run average.

Liston, Clark In S.F. Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and California state heavyweight titleholder Henry Clark have signed to fight 10 rounds June 24 at the Cow Palace.

Before he fights Clark, Liston will take on Bill Joyner of Cincinnati May 23 at the Olympic Auditorium in Los Angeles.

OWNER WAITS FOR HEARING

Image To Go In Preakness?

BOSTON (AP) — Dancer's Image is being pointed for the Preakness, but whether he runs still hinges on the outcome of next week's hearing into the colt's disqualification from first place in the Kentucky Derby.

Owner Peter Fuller says he has decided to go ahead with preparations after being told trainer Lou Cavalaris could handle pre-race conditioning for Dancer's Image pending the outcome of the hearing.

Fuller still insists, however, that he'll pull the colt out of the $150,000 race, second jewel in racing's Triple Crown, unless Cavalaris is permitted to saddle him.

"He'll either go into the paddock with me and my wife on May 18 or the horse won't run," Fuller said last night. "They're an indivisible team. They're both champions."

Cavalaris has steadfastly denied that he or any member of his crew administered the drug to the sore-legged colt any time after the previous Sunday — six days before the Derby and ample time, according to the trainer, so that it should have cleared his system and couldn't have affected his performance.

Cavalaris was flying from Fort Erie, Ont., to Louisville today to give a statement on the matter to the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau. He was expected to go to Pimlico in Baltimore after that to supervise the training of Dancer's Image while awaiting next week's hearing.

"I'm not concerned about the outcome . . ." he said last night. "I didn't do anything wrong. Even if I am declared guilty I know I am innocent and I have complete confidence in my crew."

Fuller has stood by his trainer since the original announcement, claiming that either the horse was tampered with or the urine specimen was mixed up some way.

The wealthy Boston automobile dealer has also been critical of Churchill Downs and Kentucky racing officials, who he said have issued conflicting and contradictory statements.

"I have the feeling that these people are confused," he said at a news conference last night.

Dancer's Image won the Derby last Saturday by 1½ lengths over Calumet Farm's Forward Pass, but the disqualification was announced Tuesday when the results of the urinalysis were learned.

Fuller took heart yesterday, however, when Kentucky racing officials said no purse money could be distributed until after next week's hearing.

"Right now there is no winner of the 94th Kentucky Derby," he said. "Of course, you and I know my horse won it by a length and a half."

Asked if he thought there was still a chance his colt might win out in a new reversal he said:

"A very good chance. And I'll still think he won no matter what. So will everybody else who was there."

Veteran PGA Official Says Tour Competition Tougher

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A veteran PGA official predicted today as the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament got under way that Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus will no longer be able to dominate the play for pay ranks.

"No, not because they're off their game," quickly added Bob Gorham, the PGA's field secretary. "It's because there are so darn many good players coming on the tour these days. It is just that the competition is getting better and better, stiffer and stiffer and no one man can really dominate the game."

He points to this year's money list, in which eight of the top 60 have been on the tour less than two years, plus the field of the New Orleans Open.

Fifteen pros survived the PGA's Approved Tournament Player School at Palm Beach Garden, Fla., earlier this month, earning the right to join the lucrative tour.

Seven of them tried to qualify here, the first tournament in which they could compete. Four made it — Bob Dickson, whose amateur record includes victories in the British and U.S. Amateur championships; Japan's Hideyo Sugimoto; Joe Porter, and Larry Hinson.

BOWLING TIPS

MARION LADEWIG

Watch yourself to see if you wiggle, wobble, wander or weave your way to the foul line. Your path to the foul line should be as nearly straight as possible. If you wander you are far more likely to wind up at a different spot each time and your accuracy will suffer terribly. Have a teammate watch you carefully to see if you are weaving. If you are guilty, slowing your approach a bit should help you eliminate the wobble.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Whachamacallit Are Schooling Up In Northern Cal Waters

STEVENS

A group of people living now in California but hailing from the East or Central West were inspecting a freshly caught fish, and asked to identify it by name.

One chap from the Ohio Valley claimed it was a Chelor; another fellow claimed the fish was Campellite; a third party scoffed at the name saying it most certainly was a Croppy.

Still another of the group spoke up: "You are all wrong. I have caught dozens of them in Indiana. It is called a New-Light." One of the group who had remained silent so far spread his hands and shrugged: "I can't understand how you arrived at those names, while most people know it is a Bridge Perch."

Other names — Goggle-eye, Speckled Perch, Shad and John Demon.

Oddly, each of the names mentioned was correct. The common fish we call a crappie is known by many different names in many different areas of the United States. So what's in a name? The crappie, or call it what you will, is certainly the leading fish we have hereabouts. This is the time of the year when they are schooling up in Clear Lake, Lake Berryessa and in the back-country waters. They are being found as far upstream as Stockton and downstream in just about every area where the water is shallow and somewhat cloudy.

In David Starr Jordan's book on the American food and game fishes of America, he wrote: "The crappie reaches a length of about a foot and when found in water that is not too muddy, or too warm, is an excellent panfish."

However, most of the crappies being landed at present are found in muddy water. (One recipient of a mess of crappies, lamented the somewhat muddy taste of the crappie.)

A reader called to tell of a very successful trip to Clear Lake after crappies. He asked me to warn my readers that the crappie has a very tender, soft mouth and is apt tto tear the hook through the mouth unless handled with skill.

Oddly, although dozens of local anglers have reported fabulous catches of crappies, very little mention has been made of bluegills. Many old timers maintain the bluegill is a harder fighter, and a much better tasting panfish than the crappie. With the exception of one report, vast catches of crappies are featured. Although a few of the "regulars" have been taking black bass and catfish in Lake Berryessa as well as in Clear Lake, seldom is the action mentioned from either water.

For fast action with fly rod and flies or lures, give the Yuba River, north of the town of Yuba City, a whirl. Use a Flea Fly and have fun.

Phoenix Slugger Bonds May Have A Broken Ankle

Bobby Bonds of Phoenix had a night he'll never forget. It was the greatest of his pro baseball career—or maybe the worst.

Phoenix splattered Denver 15-3 last night and Bonds went went 4-for-4, scoring five runs knocking in eight runs. He had a grand slam homer, two triples, a single, and two walks.

But in the ninth he was rounding third base and tripped. He was taken to a Denver hospital where doctors said he might have a broken ankle which would sideline him for weeks. Further tests are slated today.

The moon is between the first quarter and the full phase. The morning stars are Saturn and Venus. The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history:

A Mistake In The Defense Can Justify A Bold Bid And Score

Since bidding is not an exact science you must expect to get to many unmakable game contracts. Fortunately, you should make some of those unmakable contracts when the defense slips.

QUEEN OPENING

When today's hand was played in the recent national team championship for the Harold S. Vanderbilt Cup, West opened the queen of diamonds against Robert Jordan's ambitious contract of four hearts.

Jordan, a member of the U.S. Olympic bridge team which later won the national championship, won the first trick in dummy with the ace of diamonds and returned a club.

EAST DUCKS

East now slipped, returning a diamond. Jordan won with the king of diamonds and ruffed a club with dummy's nine of hearts. East overruffed with the king of hearts and returned a trump, two tricks too late.

SETS UP CLUBS

Declarer was able to win with the queen of hearts and ruff another club in dummy. When East couldn't overruff, Jordan ruffed a diamond and drew trumps. He could then cash his last club, assuring the contract.

East should return a trump on gaining the lead with the ace of clubs. South wins a finesse with the queen of hearts and ruffs a club in dummy. East overruffs with the king of hearts and leads another trump, removing the last trump from dummy. Now South is down one since he must lose a second club trick.

TIGHTER PLAY

The defense will probably be tighter next month when the U.S. plays against Italy in the bridge Olympics, but perhaps our team will bid more conservatively. A good bidder counts the quality of the defense as well as his own aces and kings.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two hearts.

The hand is not quite strong enough to bid the spades first and also raise the hearts later. Since you can afford only one response, prefer to raise partner's major suit. The trump support for hearts is below the normal standard, but most experts would still prefer this raise to a spade response.

Indian Parents Get Blame For Troubles

BANGALORE, India (AP) — Education Minister Triguna Sen has blamed the older generation for growing lack of discipline among students.

"The elders have failed to bring them up to be useful citizens," he told an engineers' conference.

Marin Fabric Center Embarks On Largest Expansion To Date

Possibly one of the biggest retail expansions in downtown San Rafael recently is that of the Marin Fabric Center, now moving from 874 to 836 Fourth Street.

This is Marin Fabric's second expansion since opening in the Albert Arcade Building over four years ago. About a year after the opening, owners Ronald Rose and Don Rosenberg doubled their space at that location. Meanwhile they have opened outlets in Napa, Berkeley and Walnut Creek.

They are now taking over the entire building which formerly housed the Bank of Marin. It contains 13,000 square feet, three times the space they have had in the Albert Arcade. There are entrances on Fourth Street, Fifth Avenue and midway between, from the customer parking lot accessible from Fifth Avenue. All partitions in the building have been removed.

Lines are being expanded; there will be a bridal department; the rear of the store will be devoted to new lines of draperies, curtains and upholstery materials. There will be more cutting tables, more help and wider aisles.

THE RAPIDLY EXPANDING investment security business of Mitchell, Morse and Schwab, Inc., San Rafael will have a new name tomorrow — Investment-Indicators Research and Management, Inc.

The firm's operations extend over 50 states; it also circulates bimonthly financial newsletters throughout the world, and manages the only mutual fund headquartered north of the Golden Gate Bridge, Investment-Indicators Fund.

New officers include Desmond Mitchell, chairman of the board and secretary; Charles R. Schwab, president; Donald Johnston, vice president; Robert Fargo, assistant research director; John W. Lucas, assistant portfolio manager and security analyst; and Marjorie A. Wegner, assistant treasurer.

CORPORATE CHANGES at Holiday Magic, Inc., San Rafael have elevated Harold Lipska of Novato from vice president of finance to executive vice president. He joined the company in 1966. Previously he was a staff accountant and tax auditor in San Jose.

Lipska

Brown

CHARLES DAVID BROWN of San Rafael has joined the company as manager of sales promotion and incentive programs and is the first executive added to the advertising staff in a projected expansion program. Previously he was sales promotion supervisor and assistant to the advertising director for Avon Products, Inc.

D'ALDEN SHOE RACK is the name of a new annex opened in the Albert Arcade Building, San Rafael by Don Alden — in addition to his regular D'Alden's Shoe Salon at 890 Fourth Street.

The annex managed by William Blanton, caters to the young and "young at heart" with avant garde fashions, mod boots and other modern footwear in a sort of self-service arrangement for easy browsing. Handbags and other accessories are carried.

Market Slips In Active Day Of Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today in active trading.

The market had been moving irregularly earlier in the trading session, with the Dow Jones industrial average down at the opening but with gains leading losses by a moderate margin.

It moved downward when, brokers said, investors started "selling off sharply" on news of rumors of Soviet troop movements near the Polish-Czech border.

American Motors, up ⅜s at 12⅛s; United Air Lines, off ½ at 40½; Atchison Tepeka & Santa Fe preferred, up ⅛s at 9⅜s; Commercial Credit, off ¼ at 46; Hazeltine, off 1⅝s at 22⅛s; Hooker Chemical, off 1½ at 49⅜s; and Occidental Petroleum, off 1⅛s at 41⅜s.

Of the 15 most-active stocks, 7 declined, 5 advanced and 3 were unchanged.

WORLD'S SECOND TALLEST

Looming over Chicago, the 100-story John Hancock Center reached its "topping out" stage this week with the placement of the final beams. After completion of a TV-radio tower, the building will tower 1,107 feet, second only the the Empire State Building as the world's tallest building. Michigan Avenue is to the left of the building, which will house stores, offices and apartments. (AP Wirephoto)

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Speculative Swings Often Mistaken For Growth

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. We have been in and out of different issues for seven years with no gains to show for a supposed bull era. We wanted strong growth with a little speculation. Our portfolio is definitely out of balance. What changes can you suggest without too much loss? — L.R.

A. Except for Radio Corp. you seem to be left with a miscellany of speculative issues, out of which I would recommend holding only three. Electronic Associates may possibly be taken over by Control Data through an exchange of common shares. You would then be holding a strong — though volatile — computer issue moving up on higher earnings. This should satisfy your desire for speculative potential.

Associated Products also reports higher earnings for third quarter ending Feb. 29. Share net practically tripled year to year on sales that were up 35 per cent. Hold this for now.

Finally, you might hold Riegel Textile for a while longer although, for fiscal 1968 ending September 30, earnings are expected tto drop below the record level of $3.02 reported for 1967. Improvement is looked for later, however. For replacements I advise selecting growth stocks from my column recommendations.

Q. Commissions I receive as a real estate broker go into the bank since my husband's income is sufficient for our family needs. We'd like to invest these commissions for our children's education, but have been told we should have a few thousand dollars to start with instead of our few hundred. What do you say? — D.H.

A. You can start with $500 to $600 and buy some shares of Transamerica to hold for a long-term investment. When you have saved up another similar amount, either add to these shares or buy another growth stock — possibly Baxter Laboratories. Some New York Exchange member firms offer a monthly investment plan which might interest you.

Lockheed Dividend

BURBANK (BW) — The board of directors of Lockheed Aircraft Corp. has voted a quarterly dividend of 55 cents per capital share, payable June 10 to shareholders of record May 17.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Facts May Not Match Prestige Of Name

The name "Academic Senate" has a distinguished sound. It conjures up a picture of eminent scholars, meeting rather solemnly in their ivied tower for learned discussions, aloof from the madding crowd.

Thus, when one reads that the University of California Academic Senate makes a recommendation for campus reforms, or that the College of Marin Academic Senate opposes the college president, he is likely to invest this with considerable authority.

Such authority as it has, however, comes more from numbers than from eminence.

THE UNIVERSITY of California Academic Senate at Berkeley, for instance, is composed of all professors, of whatever grade, at the university, plus some instructors who have received permanent tenure. Of its 1,800-odd members, about 800 are assistant professors who have not yet received permanent tenure — this not coming until after seven or eight years on the university faculty. Thus, it speaks for the whole fulltime faculty, not just for the learned leaders.

At College of Marin, the situation is somewhat different. There, the Academic Senate is made up of only 17 members out of a fulltime faculty of 138. But again, its members are not necessarily those with the greatest learning or prestige.

Junior college teachers gain "instant tenure" when hired, although they are carried under the euphemism of "probationary teachers" until their fourth year. Of the 17 members of the College of Marin Academic Senate, five are still "probationary" — or what would be apprentices in another field. Two others received "permanent tenure" only last fall.

Thus, the percentage of "fully tenured" or "senior" faculty members on the representative Academic Senate at College of Marin is about the same as that on the faculty-wide Academic Senate at Berkeley.

FIVE OF THE 17 Academic Senate members at College of Marin are department chairmen. This might appear to give the body added status. Oddly, however, two of these department chairmen are still on "probationary" status. So the designation "department chairman" does not signify the senior member of a department, by any means.

(As a sidelight, four of the 17 members of the College of Marin Academic Senate live outside Marin County. This is somewhat higher than the percentage for the fulltime faculty as a whole, for 118 of the college's fulltime faculty members live in Marin and only 20 continue to live elsewhere.)

IT MIGHT SIMPLIFY things for public understanding if universities and colleges would drop the "academic senate" designation entirely. Certainly it is meaningless at U.C., where the whole fulltime faculty belongs and it is actually the faculty association. And the name seems hardly appropriate for a group at College of Marin, chosen by fellow teachers, which might better be called the "representative assembly." (This is a designation, incidentally, that should appeal to the California Federation of Teachers, which is well represented on the college's academic senate, since it is quite widely used in labor unions.)

Prestige may be in a name.

And it may be questionable whether the rose that is the Academic Senate "would smell as sweet by any other name." That's probably why it won't be changed.

"You people are three hours late for our scheduled meeting!"

Signups Decide Worth Of Classes

Editor, Independent-Journal:

If you were as well-informed as you should be, you would know that credit classes at the College of Marin are not blocked from any classroom space by adult education classes.

The worth of adult classes is not decided by you or any other single person, but by the seeking, intelligent people who attend them. Should registration or attendance be too low, the class is discontinued. Courses are set up in answer to specific requests and according to community needs. Their planning is carefully considered by experienced persons before ever they are offered for registration.

We in adult education are working hard to teach well. We are irritated but not put down by irresponsible criticism.

No Children's Film On Saturday

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to hurl my own brickbat at the Blumenfeld Theaters. Last Saturday my daughters asked if they could go to the movies. I looked at the paper and found that the Tamalpais was showing "Sweet November," rated as adults only, and "The Family Way," with an adults and teen rating; the Rafael had "In the Heat of the Night" — an adult and teen rating.

It seems to me if Mr. Blumenfeld wishes to continue holding a practical monopoly on movie theaters in this county, he should at least see to it that this type of entertainment is not shown on a Saturday afternoon when 80 per cent or more of his customers are children under 12.

I would also like to urge the parents in this county to voice their protest to Mr. Blumenfeld. If they continue to support his theaters, he has every right to assume that his bill-ings are acceptable to the general public.

Highway Financing Position Denied

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Tuesday evening, April 30, Mr. E. N. Kettenhofen, supervisor, Second District, speaking at a candidates' night asserted that the Marin Citizens Transportation Committee had advocated that an east-west highway in central Marin be built by a bond issue. Supposedly, this statement was made by me, as chairman of the MCTC.

The MCTC has never taken such a position. Nor have I ever made such a statement. In discussions of the Highway 17 question I have cited the continuing concern of the cities of San Anselmo and Fairfax for solving their own traffic problems. Prudently, the city councils of these cities have engaged experts to advise them. Wisely, they are examining various solutions and various means of financing these, including bond issues. The point to this is that these are some of the steps being considered by these municipalities to preserve their environments and the amenities the citizens enjoy. The alternatives, including the means of financing, will be publicly discussed in the near future when the experts have completed their work. Until then, it is premature to take a position.

Student Supports Principal Kreps

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Regarding the ravings of Mary Jane Stetson in her letter to the editor published Tuesday, April 30, concerning the principal of Redwood High School:

As a senior at Redwood, I am very proud to have Mr. (Donald) Kreps as our principal. In the face of unfortunate pressure from the local, regional, and national news media, he has maintained a firm stand in a decision he believes to be right. In not recommending Miss (Elizabeth) Blodgett for rehiring, Mr. Kreps was doing his job in the way he deemed most appropriate in this situation. The recommendation of a teacher is a professional matter concerning the principal, the teacher, the hearing officials, and the board of trustees. It is not the place of news media, or anyone else for that matter, to interfere. . . .

It was Miss Blodgett's responsibility, as both a teacher of physical education and an adult to abide by her agreement (to lose weight) of 18 months ago. She shunned this responsibility and now must be prepared to face the consequences. The fact that she is now losing weight is irrelevant.

Mr. Kreps, I'm proud of you and I know I'm not alone in feeling this way. Thank you.

Guaranteed Income Welfare Answer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Practically all the writing and talking today concerns civil rights, minority rights, human rights, criminal rights but the most ignored right today is the majority right, the person who supports all rights, the forgotten man who pays taxes till it hurts — ouch!

Wake up Californians, it's later than you think, you have been stabbed in the back by a ruling of the federal court in San Francisco. This august panel of judges have decided to eliminate the one-year waiting period of residency in this state for indigents to qualify for welfare. . . .

California has probably the most generous welfare giveaway program in the country due to the largess of the previous administrations. We are paying a heavy penalty in order to perpetuate the responsible legislators in office. If the last meager bars of protection are dropped we will have such an influx of welfare cases from all over the country that the billion-plus budget for welfare last year will be peanuts compared to what we will be facing within a few years. . . .

What we need in this country is a uniform welfare or guaranteed income plan supported entirely by the U.S. government to provide all families with the necessities of life to prevent the shifting of the indigent population to the states that provide over generous welfare payments. Until such a plan is adopted California should make the necessary changes in its benefits for self-preservation. After the first mistake illegitimacy should not be rewarded with additional funds. The families chronically on welfare should be instructed in the effective use of birth control pills, contraceptives and even voluntary sterilization. A good proportion of the illegitimate children and those from broken homes now on welfare later become school drop-outs, delinquents, etc. through no fault of their own.

'Plowshare Pledge' Could Give Hope To Negroes, Other Poor

WASHINGTON — Instead of displaying a fish-eyed glare—as some are already doing — Congress ought to make the Poor People's Campaign feel fully welcome in the capital.

It's their capital as well. It's their nation as well. It's their constitution as well which guarantees them the right to petition the government in peaceful assembly.

If there is danger that Rev. Ralph David Abernathy's massive encampment here later this month might erupt into violence — and there is — one way to reduce that danger is for the participants to be met with open arms and with open ears and minds.

Johnson cabinet officials have set a high standard of attentive friendliness in advance conferences. But unfortunately there are congressmen whose first reaction is to disdain this Poor People's Campagn and to suggest the marchers ought to be barred by law from coming to Washington.

THEY SHOULD NOT. They should be made welcome.

They are demanding that private industry and government at every level put a higher priority on wiping out poverty in the United States.

Is that a fantastic or unreal goal? As an excuse for not trying, many used to justify their indifference by saying that the poor would always be with us. That view is outdated not just among the poor but among the affluent. The National Association of Manufacturers has stated that "poverty has become intolerable in this country because it is unnecessary."

AND IS THIS Poor People's Campaign asking Congress to deal more effectively with something that is peripheral? I offer the answer of Arjay Miller, president of the Ford Motor Co., who says that "of all the social problems demanding attention today, the most basic is the elimination of poverty in this country . . . One-sixth of our fellow citizens are not sharing adequately — or, in some cases, at all — in our progress to date."

More than this, where relief from joblessness is already most needed, the situation is getting worse. The unemployment percentage among Negro teen-agers, which has been running about two-and-a-half times greater than for white teen-agers, is going up, not down.

WE OUGHT NOT to blur the truth that the Vietnam war puts a priority demand on the federal budget and that resources are not as available as they otherwise would be to do many of the things government can do to help people rise from poverty.

But this war is going to end and it may be sooner than we think. Therefore, wouldn't it be useful for the Poor People's Campaign to promote a national pledge to commit much of what is now being spent in Vietnam to solving the pressing human problems when war costs decrease?

It might read:

"I pledge that, when peace comes in Vietnam, I will use my influence as a citizen and as a voter to make sure that savings in military expenses will be invested wherever practical in human resources here at home — especially for the benefit of the poor."

Sargent Shriver calls this the "Plowshare Pledge."

Why, isn't this one of the most constructive non-violent campaigns which the Rev. Abernathy and his colleagues could lead — a campaign to get millions of concerned Americans to write their senators, their congressmen, and the congressional leadership of both parties?

In election years the politicians are particularly sensitive to public opinion. The Plowshare Pledge could well be presented to both party conventions where it would not be easy to shun it.

The poor are not politically powerless. They could do much to make th Plowshare Petition politically powerful.

No Letup In Fighting On Jordan River's Edge

By ELIAV SIMON

JERICHO (UPI)—Less than a year after 1967's six-day war, Israelis in the kibbutzim (settlements) along the Jordan are spending as much time in their shelters as did their countrymen along the old Syrian frontier before last June.

With a million Arabs within Israel's present frontiers, many Jewish settlements may eventually find themselves as hard put to defend themselves against marauders as they did before 1948.

THE PRESENT casualties from infiltrators are not heavy —roughly not much worse than road accident casualty figures, and so far the population of the occupied territories is not cooperating with the guerrillas. But Israel is not prepared to accept infiltration as one of the hazards of modern life, as she feels some of her critics would like her to do.

More than 1,500 guerrillas are in Israeli jails. However, the 2,000 members of various organizations now in Jordan vastly outnumber the hundred or so guerrillas operating before last June.

In spite of this, Israel does not wish to seal her borders with Jordan as she regards it as important to keep the bridges open for trade and traffic.

MILITARY observers here think Israel may diversify her methods of counterattack—sometimes using raids of the Karameh type, sometimes aerial bombardment, sometimes artillery attack on the guerrilla bases. But the most important aspect of the war against infiltrators is what happens now in Jordan.

King Hussein of Jordan, in the Israeli view, has neither the authority nor the political support from other Arab states to handle the guerrillas. The entire east bank is being taken over by El Fatah and its sister organizations and the Jordanian army units have again started shelling border settlements.

The army units give open protection to retreating El Fatah members, Israelis say, and there is no indication Hussein can stop them—assuming he wishes to do so.

One worry for the Israelis is that Hussein's fall might present them with an even more antagonistic regime in its place. There is also a limit to retaliation against terrorism and not only from international opinion: Israel has no desire to be landed with more territory and more Arabs.

There is going to be more fighting before the problem is resolved.

BOYS IMITATE POLICEMAN DADS

Two small boys, both policemen's sons, captured a thief in a determined chase through a Brooklyn street.

The youngsters, 7 and 9, spotted a purse snatcher as he seized a woman's pocketbook. Going after him, they shouted: "You stole that lady's purse."

The thief ducked into a basement of a nearby apartment house, dropping the purse as he went. Retrieving it, the boys trailed the culprit to a basement.

To block the thief's escape, the boys pushed a plank and a washing machine against the door, and one ran out to call police. Officers arrived to arrest the trapped man a few minutes later.

One man remarked that he was "awestruck by the power and influence that a father wields over his children in guiding their thoughts, hewing their future, shaping their way."

"I urge you, then, be imitators of me."

Obscene Play At State College Brings Move For Public Decency

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A move on behalf of public decency is under way in the state Legislature through a bill by Sen. Lawrence E. Walsh, D-Huntington Park.

The measure, SB 487, makes it a misdemeanor to engage in "any simulated act of sexual intercourse, or deviate conduct, during a play, motion picture, television production, or other exhibition under the jurisdiction, sponsorship, or control of any state college."

IN ADDITION, Senator Walsh is inquiring into a recent appearance of some nine pieces of sculpture, graphically depicting sexual activity, on the campus of California State College at Long Beach, to determine whether legislation covering situation of this type is needed.

Walsh's bill has cleared the Senate judiciary committee, where it was held up for some time because of a constitutional question. The legislative counsel held that the measure as applying to state colleges would be held constitutional by the courts.

"The Legislature," the opinion said, "has plenary power over the state college subject to any federal or state constitutional restriction applicable to legislation generally. . . .

"It appears that the Legislature, in the exercise of its broad control over the state colleges, can establish reasonable rules of propriety over college functions, and that the legislation in question would be held to constitute a reasonable rule of this character."

WALSH POINTED OUT that current state law prohibits sexual acts from taking place in public, but does not prohibit simulated acts.

The senator's interest in proposing the legislation resulted from his service on a legislative committee which investigated an allegedly obscene play known as "The Beard," which was presented at California State College in Fullerton.

The measure puts responsibility on teachers and school officials to see that college productions afford some recognition to accepted standards in public morals.

De-Escalating Wrong War

(Reprinted from New York Times)

For an administration that likes to measure progress in its wars statistically, here are some sobering figures:

At least 10 million Americans are victims of hunger, according to a report of the Citizens Board of Inquiry Into Hunger and Malnutrition.

More than $200 million that could have been used for direct food distribution to the poor has been returned to the Treasury by the Department of Agriculture because of "budgetary pressures."

American farmers have slaughtered and buried 14,000 hogs in recent weeks because, they say, the market does not offer an adequate price for the some three million pounds of pork products thus sacrificed.

Hub City Has Vacant Buildings But None To House Post Office

The contradiction, of course, is because of the postal department's specifications: In a long-range plan for the next 20 or 30 years of use, it would need a total of 35,000 square feet, of which 23,000 square feet would be outside space for platforms and parking facilities.

And such a chunk of land, either with or without a building, just isn't available, according to John F. Fahy, postmaster.

He said the only possible building meeting the needs is the vacant Safeway building at Belle and San Anselmo avenues. It has more than enough room he said, with 14,000 square feet in building space alone. But one catch is that it's located 3½ blocks from the hub of the Hub City, 1½ blocks further away than the existing post office at 333 San Anselmo Avenue.

Fahy said although about 75 per cent of the people now drive to the post office rather than walk, a post office is a central attraction in a smaller city and ideally should be located smack in the middle of town.

The present building, used as a post office since May of 1948, is now too small, he said, with less than 5,000 square feet in floor space and very little parking for the four trucks. Too, the long-term lease expires at end of this month. Fahy said since it's probable that no other location will be found or ready by then, a short lease may have to be arranged with the present landlard.

TWO TELESCOPIC flag poles and flags which neatly mark the outfield foul lines for the baseball park at Piper Park, dedicated last Saturday in Larkspur, were made in Larkspur and donated by Dan B. Murdock of Tele-Flag Pole Co.

The new flagpole firm, located at 17 Olive Avenue, makes lightweight flag poles with bases about three pounds heavy, but which won't blow over, according to Murdock. The poles extend to a height of 15 feet.

Hub Schools Bond Ballot Publicity Set

Information about San Anselmo School District's proposed $510,000 bond issue will be mailed to every family in the district, Richard Kreuzer, chairman of a citizens' bond committee, told district board members Tuesday night.

The issue on the June 4 primary election ballot is to provide additional rooms at Red Hill and Hidden Valley schools, and drainage work at Sleepy Hollow School.

The board discussed its policy of permitting up to 3 per cent of the teachers to have sabbatical leave during the same year, but took no action on a policy for the 1968-69 year. A lowering of the percentage has been proposed.

A policy limiting the number of college credits a full-time teacher can take every semester also was established. Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said three units may be taken, and up to three additional units on approval following special hearings.

San Anselmo School District Board also:

BASEBALL — Approved up to $500 assistance for Little League improvement on the Hidden Valley School baseball field.

BOND ISSUE — Endorsed the $9,900,500 bond issue Nov. 5 of the Tamalpais High School District.

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

Tenure Laws Get Blame For School Difficulties

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

A large majority of experienced school trustees asked this question by the writer have replied, "The tenure laws."

Other principal causes of difficulty cited were "lack of public support" (usually by a trustee whose district had just lost a bond or tax election) and the lockstep system of automatic salary raises for teachers. In discussion, the trustees generally agreed that these causes are tied to the tenure laws.

WHAT IS WRONG with California's teacher tenure laws that brings this widespread complaint from the people charged with operating the schools?

The answer is contained in Sections 13403 through 13443 of the California Education Code.

Section 13403 provides that "no permanent employee shall be dismissed except for one or more of the following causes": immoral or unprofessional conduct, dishonesty, incompetency, evident unfitness for service, physical or mental condition unfitting him to associate with children, persistent violation of school laws and regulations, conviction of a felony or crime of moral turpitude, membership in the Communist party or an organization declared subversive.

The sections following it, through Section 13442, set forth the procedures the district must go through to dismiss a teacher for any of these reasons. They include filing of charges and specifications, granting of hearing, etc., under a formula which makes dismissal of a teacher the equivalent of bringing and proving a case in criminal court.

Section 13443 extends all this protection to "probationary" teachers — those who have been with a district less than three years.

ONLY TWO differences exist betweeen the procedures for dismissing "permanent" teachers (those who have been given their fourth annual contract in a district) and "probationary" teachers (those who have not).

The so-called "probationary" teachers can be dismissed for causes "that relate solely to the welfare of the schools and the pupils thereof" but may not have been enumerated in Section 13403. And if they lose their appeal through the hearing process, they are not entitled to review in a court of law — which the "permanent" teachers are. Otherwise, the procedures are identical.

Under this system, a teacher once hired has a job for life, for all practical purposes, unless he publicly joins the Communist party or is convicted of a felony — the easy-to-prove causes for dismissal.

"Probationary" is a misnomer since the code was amended in 1961 to extend this ironclad job protection to teachers not under "permanent tenure."

What happened as a result of that change is plainly shown in the minutes of annual closed-door "teacher evaluation" sessions of school boards throughout the state. Such minutes give no description of the discussion, merely of the action taken. And in case after case, they read: "The board voted to offer all probationary teachers contracts for next school year."

THERE IS NO other public employment in California which provides no probation period during which an employee can be released without appeal.

No private employer obligates himself to keep an employee for life on the day he hires him.

Where labor unions operate hiring halls which provide employees on request, the employer is permitted to reject any who obviously cannot do the job, and ask for a replacement.

Only teachers are given what amount to lifetime contracts the moment they are hired.

And school trustees are not the only ones who object to this system. Many of the better teachers complain that it has loaded the schools with incompetents, loafers, and campus politicians more interested in political agitation than in teaching their classes.

Sumbardo's Job Status Due Another Hearing

The question was added to the agenda yesterday at the request of Vice Mayor Cornelis Van Vliet.

Van Vliet, who runs a printing firm in Fairfax, said, "People have been coming into my shop and telling me that Sumbardo has been going around saying he will be through in July.

"If he has been saying that, I want to bring the thing to a head. I wouldn't say that he's going to be fired. I don't know how the other council members feel. That's what I want to find out."

Van Vliet, Mayor Robert R. Souza and Francis J. O'Connell represent what could be a new three-man majority in the Fairfax City Council. But it has not yet developed into that.

Sumbardo, who hadn't been informed that he will be a personnel item, said the explanation for the "through in July" remarks attributed to him is that the city ordinance reads that a new city council cannot dismiss an administrator until 90 days after it is seated. That would be in July.

"I might have made the remark to a few people," said Sumbardo, who admitted to having some apprehensions about the fate of his job in the hands of the new city council.

"I've got a wife and children and the councilmen haven't even had the courtesy to tell me how I stand," said Sumbardo. Sure, I feel a certain amount of insecurity."

Larger Sales Tax Slice For Marin

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Marin County and its cities may expect an increase of 7 per cent in sales tax and cigarette tax revenues in the fiscal year beginning July 1, the state Board of Equalization has forecast.

This would mean an estimated $2,998,400 in sales tax revenues and $569,700 in cigarette taxes for the county and its cities.

The Board of Equalization said the forecast is based on department of finance figures which show a statewide sales gain of nearly 7 per cent in the year ending on June 30, 1969.

Police May Have Broken Bandit Gang

PACOIMA (AP)—Police may have broken up a gang that committed 27 robberies of banks and savings and loan associations with the arrest of three men.

The three were flushed out of an apartment yesterday after a robbery at the Trans-World Bank by three armed men wearing ski masks.

Shortly before 2 p.m., the masked men entered the bank and told 18 employees and customers to lie on the floor. After taking $2,700, they fled out the rear door to a waiting car.

Outside a three-man police task force, watching the bank which had been robbed three times previously, saw one man pulling off one of the ski masks. A gun battle ensued and police say they hit the fleeing driver of the car. The capture took place minutes after the other three ran off.

Aubrey Lee Curley, 35, Lee Richardson, 21, and Hilbert Knox, 26, were booked on suspicion of robbery.

Police said they believed the trio to be part of a gang which had robbed financial institutions wearing masks like those used by skiers and sometimes shooting guns into the ceiling during the robberies.

Check Hearing

Joseph E. Moser of 213 Montego Key, Bel Marin Keys, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a charge that he cashed a $216 bad check with Pierce Hardin Van and Storage in San Rafael Dec. 19. His case was continued until May 22 for entry of plea.
